Thread: Glasses

What are your thoughts on characters with glasses.

Mine (Click to View) I honestly hate them. They only appeal to the shortest stub of anime fan-bases and deteriorates any other features which completely eliminates from being joined with other fan bases. (EX: Cute, Shy, Loli, Hot, etc...)

Why I hate and get so serious on these is beyond me.

What are your thoughts on the main character with glasses

Mine (Click to View) I have only watched one anime series where this is the case and the glasses he wore were only visible in 1/15 scenes. I will completely drop or eliminate an anime from watching/to watch list due to this.

Once again why I hate and get so serious on these is just beyond me.

Now your thoughts on the matter, Vote in the poll if you don't want to post.

I say yes. Basically because I don't mind.

Also, Keima of The World Only God Knows wouldn't be the same at all without glasses.

Yeah i won't lie there are some characters out there that could never be themselves without glasses. But those are limited to 1/100 animes that feature glasses.

This ^

Also mayo chiki, definitely would be worse without glasses xP

I voted yes.

I hardly say this, but..

WHO THE HELLS CARES!

sneekybasterd - January 27, 2012, 4:48 pm

i totally agree that some characters are not the same without glasses, but i really don't care as long as the character has a nice subtlety with their glasses. some character seem to care too much about their glasses that's when it really starts getting annoying.

OneandonlySunny™ - January 27, 2012, 5:25 pm

Nah

i DOn't like glasses
but for some girls character its yummy :D

Sim?n - January 27, 2012, 5:33 pm

Depends on the character if it's a main character then NO, If it's a librarian or a teacher then it's acceptable
Other then that NOPE.

Rakshasa - January 27, 2012, 5:41 pm

I could give more fucks, that's for sure..

Reki - January 27, 2012, 11:29 pm

If it was a girl wearing it, then I'd say hell yes. I find them hot with glasses, but aside from that, some main characters wouldn't really be the same without glasses, as the others have said.

TheElo124 - January 28, 2012, 7:16 am i voted yes because i think some anime characters should but not all like yuki nagato and kamina and all the others

turtleshellx - January 28, 2012, 1:23 pm

I don't see glasses that big of a difference, i don't care about these minor details as much, now if its one of those characters who are just like "OH NOZ I NEEDZ MUH GLASSES" then i find it kinda stupid

Yuusha - January 28, 2012, 1:56 pm

Depends on the design of the glasses and the character wearing them but I generally think that male characters can look cool with glasses while I absolutely hate girls with glasses.

Marshmellow - January 28, 2012, 2:23 pm

I want to see a glasses tsundere in an anime sometime.

I just do.

Kaleidoscope - January 28, 2012, 5:41 pm

Well let's just say I wouldn't lose any sleep over it.

???? - January 28, 2012, 10:42 pm

They don't really bother me but I do get your point but at the same time I think many characters would look completely different etc.

Marshmellow - January 29, 2012, 2:35 am

Yeah, I honestly don't care, and even think that glasses can be cute on females.
