Thread: Need a thread layout

Gibbs™ - January 28, 2012, 9:16 am

I'm not so good with graphics, I need a thread layout that says the following:(I don't care what the layout looks like if you already have it pre made I just want a good looking layout with the following written) If it is good I will pay a couple dollars as well, and as always leave positive rep

Writing or Revising Documents or Websites

What kind of document

How many pages

What you would like complete

Would you like me to write any documents?

Payment will be based on how complexity of task

Trusted Ub3r members will not have to pay until completion of task

Post below and Contact me through PM

Paypal only_____

If anyone can do this let me know please I will be very grateful.

How much money do you have in your budget at this place in time?

@JustinH

Why would you use .PSD's on you thread design ...

The whole point is to sell your work, not someone elses on GR.
