Agreed. Your post count is high enough to charge such rates.

Only thing I dont understand is why its $6 for 6 days or $10 a week. wouldn't prices go down for long term customers?

Anyway good luck with sales and I could purchase your space once I have my site setup.

PS. Vitani's Mate has 3 more stars than Omniscient, keep that in mind :P. Also for the people saying his prices are high, he has 88 posts a day.

4 weeks = 28 days. 28 x 88 = 2464. That's 2464 posts in only one month. Those prices are not high. Good luck finding someone to buy your sig. ;)

I think the prices are fair in comparison to other people (such as myself - I can sell my sig space for roughly $5 a week, and considering my post count and posts per day in comparison to yours...), although people don't always think like that. Rather than waiting weeks for someone to pay $10, you should just:

a) Drop the price and keep consistency of customers (as in, you'll have a line-up). Appropriate price would probably be $6 if you wanted consistency.

b) Make an auction thread for your sig space each week.

You don't have much of a life tbh do you mate.

colinf - December 24, 2012, 9:59 am

I'm interested in buying your sig space if you bring down the price. Considering you just won over $36000, I'd imagine this is not too much of a stretch. Let me know if interested.

Hackforums

Ub3rs

L33ts (Can't remember which one.)

G3Forums

Programmingandmore

Moddedgame

And other sites.

For 10$ a week you add your sig to all those sites? If so I will purchase a week tomorrow to see how things go. If so please PM me so we can begin transaction. If you don't put our sig on all those sites plus HF for 10$ a week then please do not PM me.

Considering your activity on the forum, $10 would be a bargain.

Not to make anything off topic, but I was reading that and I've read instead of clicks, "Dicks".

Lmao sorry but I had too. GLWS. ?
