It doesn't seem to work for me.

Did they fix it yet, or am I just totally an idiot at this?

works here but its just a simple XSS i have found lots of sites the same.

Does anyone actually still use BTJunkie?? it went to legal lol

fobber - February 5, 2012, 5:17 am

I don't think that BTJunkie went legal. Mininova did, but I don't think BTJunkie did. At least I'm still able to find tons of movies and games on there.

Anyway, back on topic. For me I don't get any alert/popup, all I get is this:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

- Does it matter that I'm on Google Chrome?

Edit: Yeah. I tried on FireFox and it worked on there. My bad!:(

Cristiano Ronaldo - February 5, 2012, 5:17 am i don't know about XSS but it doesn't seem to work for me either. or maybe they fixed it already?

EDIT:

I think it does matter if your using Google Chrome. I tried it on Firefox and it does work :D

fobber - February 6, 2012, 11:40 am

I was just about to go test it for you, but then I noticed that it seems like BTJunkie is down.. Awh..
