Thanks and don't give up your hope, I didn't think I would ever be on there either. (Feb 15, 2012 03:01 PM)Valderino Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Impressive!

What resources would you suggest for someone who is just starting to learn how to hack?

If you are just starting to "hack" in general then I recommend you read a lot of the great tutorials and guides here on HF. That is how I started and they serve as great resources to learn from and refer back to. It also all depends on what you want to hack.
