It very nice, though i feel like you just added the two planets to that background. And its really not abstract.

I'd say its unordinary, when something beautiful and unusual unfolds...

Kind of... Abstract(art) is a functional object that is distorted or seeks to achieve its effect using shapes, and forms.

IMO these planets look regular(ish) You did a great job don't get me wrong, i just lack to see the Abstract part. =]
