I don't see why anyone would buy alts now... when there is over 300+ alt account giveaways.
Good luck though.

I'm pretty sure you posted this in the wrong section..

Whenever someone posts an alt giveaway, almost all the accounts are worthless in about a day, because so many people change shit about them. When you buy alts, they're going to work 100x longer, because not everyone has shared them. Please post in the marketplace section on HF, this doesn't belong here.
