Thread: [DealiCool - Beats Are Back \[LINKS\]](#)

My Gran - March 1, 2012, 12:15 pm

Seen alot of people crying over the past few days, because beats have gone. All they have done is move to DealiCool's new site "Maniacool".

NOTE: They have "O"'s on the pictures instead of "b"'s for copyright reasons, the real things are
"b"'s.

Here are the links.

Phil

My Gran - March 1, 2012, 12:25 pm

Grammar Rays - March 1, 2012, 12:30 pm

Thanks OP.

Phil

Pblord7 - March 1, 2012, 1:03 pm

No need to rage.

What he's trying to say is that the photos show "O" but it's actually a "b" when you get them. Those pics have been photoshopped so that the site won't get sued by Monster.

You listed a link that points to a jpeg for the studios.

Just wanted to point that out...

Real Madrid - March 3, 2012, 11:23 am

This happens all the time.. They were known as deal-cool.com first.. then they removed the beats,, after that they changed to dealicool.com and had the beats for sale again.. after that they removed the beats again.. then they created maniacool.com.. they will probably remove the beats in the future again and create a new website called chinesecool.com or something lol.

This is probably a smart trick to fuck up all the police investigations against the website.. the owner is a fucking genius.

Dr?ke - March 3, 2012, 11:41 am

Oh thanks for posting this, I was looking for there new site.

My Gran - March 3, 2012, 3:07 pm

You're welcome. ANd I know I posted an image for the studios. Will fix later... If I can be bothered.

Anyone ordered from Mania yet?

Also... I've heard a lot of people say that they didn't get their DiC Beats that they ordered a couple of days before they were removed from DiC.

Any idea why it's taking so long now? I heard that DiC's used to come to the US in 8-12 days. 14 at the most.

My Gran - March 4, 2012, 4:45 am

I'm not in the US, so I have no idea...
