Thread: Lost rep 3 rep during rep recount \(not sure \)

Un-Named - March 5, 2012, 3:17 pm

I'm not quite sure if I lost 3 rep during the rep recount that happened.

None of the rep however has changed on the first page, so does this mean.

I recently read omni's twitter status saying to PM him if you lost any rep during the re-count, but if you were bullshitting then you'd get RF'd.

Spoiler (Click to View) I'd rather not get RF'd.
What do you guys think?

I mean it's only 3 reputation, but ey, it's possible that it's a serious rep glitch.

What are you worried about? If you're telling the truth, why the worry?
But just to be on the safe side, I wouldn't PM Omni.

Someone could have just deleted there +3 on you.

You are talking about only for 3 points. If that is true, then simply don't try to make someone mad about that (omni). By looking your profile may you have soon one plus 3 so don't care about that.

I know that. But if someone deleted a +3 from me then something on my rep page would of changed.

Nothing changed however and I don't know anyone that digs through pages of rep just to delete one.

Like the above posts, somebody deleted a +3. I wouldn't risk getting RF'd over a +3.
At 800+, how are you worrying about three? :)

No, that only means someone on one of the other 33 pages have removed their +rep on you.

Yeah thanks for ignoring the rest of the thread. I acknowledged that it was only 3 reputation but at the same time there could possibly be a repglitch.

Douchebag # 145 - March 5, 2012, 3:21 pm

The most likely scenario is that an ub3r removed their +3 on you, resulting in you lowering your reputation by 3 points. I wouldn't PM Omniscient about 3 rep points.

EDIT; For a rep glitch - shouldn't it go down more than 3 points?

Nothing changed however and I don't know anyone that digs through pages of rep just to delete one. If someone deleted a older rep on you it would not affect the first page.

The only reps were removed were from those from dead accounts. So if a dead person repped you at one point then you lost 3.

God dammit, why don't you people ever read the full thread?

Done, thanks D3xus, I do remember actually a dead account that had a +3 on me.
