Alright man I will let you know if I have any questions

0x000011 - March 20, 2012, 1:11 pm

There's no other mobile spy software that compares to mobile spy, most others either aren't reliable or very incompatible with most phones. Mobile spy is a completely different story. Just read the popularity of it :)

I will do my best to answer any questions.

How can you connect to the victim phone, or do you have to instal the app first to their phones? :s

Simply install the app, once installed, confiure what to monitor and it is hidden to the user of the phone. After you start monitoring it will remain active even if the phone is off and turned back on, it will still remain active in the background. Then just login to your account online anytime to use the control panel.

For installation on the iPhone, I'm assuming that the phone has to be jailbroken.
