Thread: Hack the cyber bullying rumor spreading site - http://littlegossip.com/

Dear HF,

As many of you are aware, cyberbullying (NOT TROLLING; THERE IS A BIG DIFFERENCE) is occurring online and is upsetting many youth's. If you're going to deface, hack, attack or whatever something - try this. It's more or less a TOOL for cyberbullying. Stop the rumors - deface this before it upsets more youth's.

On behalf of all those who have been cyberbullied at some point and have taken action!

Are you a troll? No seriously are you? we're not gonna fucking hack a site, because little fucking kids refuse to click ignore or block, so fuck it, this website should stay up, and if it upsets you, which I think OP is buttfucked then I think you should hack it have fun...

That's pretty offensive language you >13 year old Feb 2012 skid.

I 100% agree OP, cyber bullying is a serious issue which needs to be dealt with. I'll check out the site and get back to you. I find the idea that someone has created a site to support this, frankly, incomprehensible.

And @Punkstoper: Fuck off.

The fact is that if you take something on the internet seriously then you deserve all the pathetic depression that's coming your way.

On the other hand I do believe that site is full of fucktards so I'm fine if anything bad happens to it.

You all have no sympathy (except for Envyv). I'm making a point that cyber-bullying is an issue on the internet. I wouldn't take it personally but some people would. @?Echelon "If kids are fucking stupid enough to get bullied online". It's not their fault.

Okey... - March 22, 2012, 11:27 am

Ddosing them now. i hate bullying.

Dont know how long i can keep em down..
