F?y - March 31, 2012, 3:52 pm

it was really hard to pick but i like the second one

Prophet Banana - March 31, 2012, 3:54 pm

Sorry about that, the poll is now attached the thread. Just so you are informed, votes will be disapproved if they are not entered through the poll.

I chose the second one, I like the blending of the colors and the glow, as well as using the green glowing color to create emphasis and focus on the hand of the render. In the first signature, the background looks out of place, as well as the light in the bottom right of the render. The soldier seems to be stuck on and just left there, it looks a bit boring IMO. In the end i would give the first one a 6/10, and the second a 8/10. But great battle and good job on both sigs.

Second one. I like the colors a little more.

I've opened the thread again, same conditions. Looks like The Graphic Squad is in the lead with 8 votes, keep on voting, first to reach 20 is declared the winner.

Waleed change the name of my old closed account to my new one.
