Thread: ? ? ? Godly.'s XBL One Month Giveaway! ? ? ? #5

G?dly - April 7, 2012, 4:22 pm

Welcome to my fifth one month XBL giveaway!

A one month for XBL!

All YOU have to do is post here on this thread why you deserve it, no sympathy or lies or your out.

I.E. - I CAN'T AFFORD IT or MY FAMILY'S TO POOR and then have a thread saying "How to make $10,000 in an hour!"

Post what you have done for HF!

Good Luck, and don't leech!

Mr. Nick - April 7, 2012, 4:23 pm

Well my dog just died and he really liked Xbox, so I think you should give it to me because I'm sad. (sarcasm)

Uhm, actually I've been trying to decide between buying a PS3 and Xbox today, and the only thing that's stopping me from buying Xbox is the whole paying for online thing. So, if you're looking to recruit another member into the Xbox army (or for at least a month or so unless I get addicted), you should give it to me.

As far as what I've done for HF, well it's not much but I try to do as much as I can, whether it's giving away free gfx, just helping someone not kill themselves (really, I JUST joined and I've had to mentor like 2 people to not kill themselves), or just giving away knowledge or advice on a thread basically every day.

Edit: Oh, let me type what I've done for HF. One sec

Curt, you should edit your and list your tutorials and giveaways. I am looking at the quality in this post.

For example Elegant did a great job.

Angelic™ - April 7, 2012, 9:49 pm

I would like to have it because , i really need it, my membership got over some time ago , and i have renewed it ,so it would be great if i was able to get it !

thanks

fsoc - April 7, 2012, 9:53 pm

I would like it, I have been writing tutorials since the day I joined - now I'm saving up for l33t and every bit of money helps out. I'm also trying to get into GT selling as well as learning coding. I intend to share all of the knowledge I gain over the next few months back to the HF community. I've never scammed nor do I intend to, I've also given away FREE graphics - signatures, deface images, and also web banners. I would very much appreciate the code. Thanks for giving all HF members an opportunity to win!

GL to everyone else!

Burn™ - April 7, 2012, 10:11 pm

I have contributed so much to hackforums.
Helped so many members, never scammed anyone ever.
I am going to run out of xbl this week.
It would be nice if i could get this in return for my contributions to hackforums.
Thanks.

Løgic - April 7, 2012, 10:36 pm

Well i dont have a sob story or any sort of I NEED XB0XZ L1V3Z PL0X. I just ran out and i need a 1 month haha. I've contributed to a lot of peoples questions on here and have given away some og emails.

Phytrix - April 8, 2012, 5:25 am

Vouch for godly. HQ and legit member. GL to all entrants :) Just renewed mine, so yeah...

Throne - April 8, 2012, 9:44 am

My account ran out like a month ago, so I need this.

I would consider myself one of the nicest/friendliest, most legit and HQ person on Hackforums.
I have done a total of 15 Gamertag Giveaways. I have gave away an XBL account with Gold on it, and I have also given away 46 OG @Lemon.com emails to both upgraded and non-upgraded members.

So, I would be greatly appreciated if I won this.

CRT - April 8, 2012, 11:01 am

I have updated my post ?Godly ?

Angelic™ - April 8, 2012, 11:06 am i have contributed to the community and i really want an code !

if you would give it to me i would be really thankfull to you deadlyicedragon - April 8, 2012, 12:37 pm

well i would really want this to play on xbl(no shit) because i will be running out in about 3 weeks,my call of duty black ops game just got scratched(no joke,if you want prove i will take a pic of it and post it here) and i was really hoping to get a new game and just play online,my dad doesn't really find the though of me wasting money on xbl cards to be "amusing" so he stopped giving me money,i don't have a paypal account because i don't like to buy things online and i think that i might get scammed or ripped off.right now i only have mortal kombat 9 and super street fighter iv,and i was hoping on buying another call of duty black ops,but like i said my dad won't give me money so those 2 games are the only entertainment i have,and in about 3 weeks it will all be over,so i really need this 3 month code.thanks in advance and good luck everyone

hack-fm - April 8, 2012, 12:51 pm

Hey. Op this is why I think I should win this.

Firstly, don't worry I'm not going to pull out a fakey sub story on you. I want to keep it simple. I haven't played my Xbox 360 online for nearly 2 years. I've been trying my best to save for one year membership. I try to hide my money savings but my dad. Who is a acaholic comes into my room and allays finds it. It's not his fault I know It's just that I feel as if I wont ever be able to get a chance to play on my games. So I'm getting excited that I could accurately get a chance to be able to play them. :) I hope I win it would really mean allot to me. Thanks so much.

I would like this code so I can re-sell it and get some money.

Sodomy - April 11, 2012, 8:12 pm

I am not sure if this is still going on or not. I hope so though.

I would love this 1 month. My little brother just recently got an xbox for the first time and does not have an account to play on. With this I could play with him and show him the ropes and play with him.

I have made the following contributions:

48 Hour giveaway

Massive email give away

GT Giveaway

Note: I have tried my hardest to be helpful and kind around here as much as possible. Have also called out multiple scammers and shed light on them to prevent others from being scammed by them.
