Ethics - April 7, 2012, 10:29 pm

Hello My dear friends. Lets keep this Simple

This is my first Giveaway and more will be coming soon hopefully. I came as a refugee to HF after being ripped and broke purchasing fake shit like wubug and lrhack :P .. Since then many friends here taught me the real deal . I will always remember them.. Learned lots of stuff .. Made good friends with out boundaries/race/caste/creed etc. Made my way from alpha to L33t and still lot more left to learn ..

Rules : Even i am hacker involved in some black hack activity i consider myself a human first .. I volunteer as a computer faculty at a mentally challenged children organization few hours per day. It was a learning experience ..

I want to know how many of HF members are involved in social service activity (even its helping your granny to find her glasses) ... If yes post your pic or proof of your activity for a social cause. The winner will be handpicked by me. Don't try to cheat because this is meant for a good cause. Winner will be verified with their organization so No-cheaters allowed

Closing Date : 13th April 2012

Interesting way to choose a winner of a contest. I am not involved in any social service. I used to volunteer a lot in events that help fight certain deceases. Not any more though.

Well I pentest for private organizations, I can not disclose their information as that would be breaking my RoE.

I do give a huge load of help to security and feel I deserve this. I would post pictures but my clearance doesn't allow me too.

Suspicion - April 8, 2012, 2:51 am

Great contest, hopefully no one posts some fake entries.

Good luck.

Robin Van Persie™ - April 8, 2012, 5:00 am

I'm going to be straight honest, not like those people that are going to lie. I'm catholic, and I usually help out at fish fries, every Friday. I do it for about 4-5 hours and I really enjoy it because the people I help enjoy it. When my grandma was alive, I would usually go to her nursing home and talk with her.

Irignation - April 8, 2012, 5:31 am

I am not taking part in any kind of social service-thing.

Which is a pity.

Good luck people.

apoC. - April 8, 2012, 5:41 am

I am apart of the AAFC(Australia Air Force Cadets) which on Anzac day we are to help out the local RSL, to help them sell Poppy's.

Not sure if that is a social cause but its something I like to do and help the community.

Thanks.

Orgy2 - April 8, 2012, 5:45 am

I'm not anticipating in this competition, but id still like to give my input.

GL1TCH3D - April 8, 2012, 8:57 am

I've volunteered at my school's senior citizens computer class (basically helping seniors learn how to access email, download pictures and such to help them stay connected with their family).
Furthermore, I wrote a guide dedicated to these seniors which I could pull up for you upon request.

I will vouch that I allowed this, but beware that if he comes back in a month with payment information, it's very easy for him to recover the account, which is why we disallow selling.
