Thread: Confusing "Change User" button

KILLM3 - April 14, 2012, 8:56 pm

When making a new reply, there is a button that says "change user". Seeing as how multi accounting is not allowed, and all it does is log you out, I'm confused why it's there...

Screen shot in a moment...

Soulmate - April 14, 2012, 8:57 pm

This is on like every single forum, and idk it's weird.

Staat - April 14, 2012, 8:57 pm

Huh... I never noticed that before :3

KILLM3 - April 14, 2012, 8:58 pm

I'm not saying it's a problem or a bad thing, I'm literally just wondering why it's there. It doesn't bother me, I just happened to notice haha.

Zoidberg - April 14, 2012, 8:58 pm

Weird. I haven't noticed that either.

McFlurry - April 14, 2012, 9:03 pm

I have never noticed that before. Its probably a bug. I'm sure it will get fixed soon.

J0uk0 - April 14, 2012, 9:14 pm

This was how I got banned for multi accounting one day.
I thought we were aloud because of that.

Sithis - April 14, 2012, 9:37 pm

Yea I've noticed that while editing my post. I don't think this should be there. It creates confusion and not really useful since you're not allowed to have multi accounts.

Yeah I accidentally clicked this to see what it did and it logged me out XD

ven0m - April 15, 2012, 3:00 am

I never saw this on HF until today. Although I saw that on SF and many other forums.
Kinda useless knowing multiple account isn't allowed here.

Michael - April 15, 2012, 3:01 am

This is because Omni is updating MyBB.
He will remove it, I guess.

Well that what it's suppose to do.

logout the current user so that another user can login.

Guess Who Is Back - April 15, 2012, 3:02 am

Not a big deal {$loginbox} is back. lol.

The Milkshake Man - April 15, 2012, 6:44 am

I saw it yesterday and thought it was just a quick way to change your actual user name.

.Cartman - April 15, 2012, 6:50 am

Weird, Im going to try this now :D

Weird indeed

JammyJ - April 15, 2012, 11:27 am

Mybb has been updated and there are still functions that haven't been removed.
That's it.

Positive - April 15, 2012, 12:06 pm

A lot of us noticed it yesterday.
When clicked upon, it will log you out, unless you are a staff member.

ComputerNerd - April 15, 2012, 12:15 pm

It's a default MyBB feature, probably something not even worth removing. It's just some silly ol' words, not worth complaining about imo.

Mr. Anderson - April 15, 2012, 1:29 pm

I don't see the button any more, and your image is broken.

The Social Experiment - April 15, 2012, 1:40 pm

I've noticed it, it's confusing especially as said due to the multi-accounting rules.

Guess Who Is Back - April 15, 2012, 1:54 pm

Change user is now changed to "log out".

So it is, maybe it's something to do with things in the future? I don't know.

Omniscient - April 15, 2012, 2:39 pm

I reverted a template. Changed the text from "change user" to simply "log out".
