Thread: User Dick uid=332942 scammed me 5\$ USD \(He changed his name\)

bren1337 - April 16, 2012, 4:19 pm

He changed his username to #1337

his profile : <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=332942> gave him 10 million RSGP went first, and he said he'd send the money after. I didn't receive it. I have it all recorded on my android phone. I will upload this to youtube for evidence. THE QUALITY ISN'T GREAT, BUT IT'S QUITE OBVIOUS, AND YOU CAN SEE ENOUGH.

[Video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=U91_7RleAmw]

1 min into the video you can see his skype is online. 1:53 you can see me accepting the trade giving him the 10m 2:30 I check my paypal for the money, nothing there. 3:00 I check again, no money. 3:09 he goes offline.

If this isn't enough proof that he scammed me, please tell me what is? The video is sideways because I just got this phone, and forgot to tilt it to the side to record properly, sorry for that.

This is not legitimate proof my friend.

I'm going to be uploading a video to youtube. I don't see how that's not enough proof. I'm editing the post soon as it's uploaded, or I'll link the video to whoever needs to see it.

$5 is pointless to open a dispute about in my opinion but if you really are pissed about the money you're going to need more proof.

A video is not enough proof? That's the most proof an individual can give for evidence on something. I'm not trying to argue with anybody, I just don't want anybody to get scammed by the kid again.

Why post this if you haven't uploaded it and there is no proof? I could just say you scammed me 10 bucks for no reason?

Why do people post threads without having the evidence already? upload the videos/pics and then make the thread. otherwise it looks like a LW shit report.

Cirez D - April 16, 2012, 4:55 pm

You need to post legitimate proof and a detailed layout of your scam report, any one can say someone scammed them!

Alright, sorry about that. Still new to the forum, but I see where you're coming from. The video will be posted on this thread though once it's done processing.

Edit: Video is up now.
