Woa nice share. Looks pretty awesome!

Invicta - April 17, 2012, 1:43 pm

Dude that's actually a really cool idea.

You should show a demonstration of some paid themes, and when they click the button have it redirect to the sales thread.

darren9119 - April 17, 2012, 4:35 pm

How the heck do you make those flash screen movies?

Its one animated image (.gif) you can record your screen with camtasia and save as .gif if you want.

memesbro - April 17, 2012, 4:59 pm

You can easily make this a network where people can upload their own themes, paid or free as stated above by kush lol. That would be pretty cool.

Yes, but not so easy. I want to implement a rate feature in the next version. 1 to 5 stars.

Sapientia - April 17, 2012, 5:10 pm

Haha I see Atleast three themes of mine in there that I totally forgot about.

KingCobraXD - April 17, 2012, 5:12 pm

Lol. Just like the theme repository created by Ted. Good job. =)

Coleak - April 17, 2012, 5:18 pm

What would be cool is if you could scrape HF threads and have the program auto add themes + a library of ones you already have, but im sure scraping HF is against the rules.

Would be hard, some people post with mediafire, some with pastebin. And i take all screenshots

Great work mate, I will download it now

idb. - April 17, 2012, 6:11 pm

Didn't Tedd already write something exactly like this?

Verified - April 17, 2012, 6:17 pm

I have to admit , this is like my idea with Nexusp2p but you're doing it with themes, I find myself using this program :)

Giommi - April 17, 2012, 6:33 pm

Nice idea!

I really like new things and this looks pretty nice!

Tested. -> Nice one :D

Anatomy - April 17, 2012, 6:56 pm

What about the theme base for all the themes?

Syperus - April 17, 2012, 7:00 pm

Nice work on this. Will download and check it out. Thanks ?

ytlayol - April 17, 2012, 8:21 pm

awesome man....keep up the good work

Killer1478 - April 17, 2012, 8:29 pm

This isn't a bad idea considering I could not get the other program running for me that is similar to this.

One question; is the theme you used included in it? In comparison, and no-offense to the creators of the themes, that one looks the best.

Wide Awake - April 17, 2012, 8:45 pm

you should add a "submit a theme" function

gorfi - April 18, 2012, 1:39 pm

(Apr 17, 2012 06:56 PM)Disguised Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What about the theme base for all the themes?

If needed you can open the theme base code, but util now all themes already have the theme base included.

(Apr 17, 2012 08:45 PM)skate101 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) you should add a "submit a theme" function

Thanks!

Well, I just used it and it is really nice. I hate having to go into my folders and get the classes manually. Now I can just C+P it into a new class without having to look for it on my desktop. This helps me a lot. +rep!

?Cooldude? - April 20, 2012, 2:09 pm

It would be good if you could make the form be the theme you're looking at.

Thanks for the idea, but i think thats impossible.

ubbelol - April 20, 2012, 2:17 pm

It would be cooler if you added a live pre-view of the theme. Like open a new form using the selected theme or whatever.

The only problem is without the theme bases you cant use progress bars, i'ts missing integers.

All the themes have theme base included in the class..

Anatomy - April 24, 2012, 5:01 pm

Well for some reason when adding progress bars i'm getting integer errors..

Really ? i tested all themes my self. whats the theme name?

Anatomy - April 24, 2012, 5:11 pm

SkyDark, I'm actually thinking that may be the only one with the problem.
