Thread: [Which PPD network are you using? +\[POLL\]](#)

Bok1ca - April 17, 2012, 10:22 pm

Okay, I just want to see your opinions. Please take two seconds from your time to vote on the poll and five seconds to post why.

If you have any questions related to PPD:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2538419>

If you want to earn good cash:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2583297>

Thanks,
Bok1ca.

I go with File Ice, I mean I dont do well like at all, but I try and get money sometimes =/

File Ice has the most trusted, and best pay out of that list IMO

I do like CPA lead better though (still make shit money with it)

I use Foolish, big download pays and higher conversion rates.

Do you really earn like $60k a year with foolish lol.

$7.3k month this and it's only been 15 days.

Someone vote for shar3cash but didn't reply why.
Shar3Cash 1 20.00%

I hate that. :-)

Walt - April 18, 2012, 1:13 am

I use File-Ice when it comes to actual PPD however I do sometimes use the AdWork Media File Locker because it works the same way as a PPD but you can have the user complete more than one survey for more high value material.

imAnoobLOL - April 18, 2012, 1:15 am

I use sharecash because I never get accepted into fileice for the 5th time.

FYeah - April 18, 2012, 1:27 am

I've tried $sharecash before but wasn't making much money..
I signed up to File Ice the other day as I saw it had high paid downloads and saw people mentioning better conversion rates so thought I'd give it a real try this time. I'm currently making $10/day now, which I know is not much but my next goal is $20/day :D
So yeah, File Ice.

@topic, I picked FI. Simply because of the very good reviews of the site and the hope of earning higher compared to other PPD sites. Community in their forums is very HQ. Even if you lurk the forum topics from months ago, they all are pretty HQ. Still haven't earned good money but I hope to soon.

The$Coach - February 26, 2013, 12:57 am

I've been with quite a few networks through the years, but i must say that so far i've had most success using a paid content locker, that way i can choose what offers i want to display based on previous conversion rates and avoid the cut the PPD sites are taking from each offer completion.
