SaiyaIV - January 21, 2010, 7:24 pm

More of an uploading guide than teaching you how to spread...

This guide is made entirely by me, it is how I've been spreading for a long time.?

Once you have created your torrent, and begun to seed, upload to these sites in this order.

Also it is best you create accounts for all the sites, even if they do not require you to create an account in order to upload.

To Start-

seedpeer.com

btjunkie.org

bitenova.nl

fulldls.com

torrents.sumotorrent.com

idealtorrent.com

extratorrent.com

torrentzap.com

After Waiting Until- 5 seeds and 20 peers

<http://www.torrentreactor.to>

<http://www.torrentportal.com>

<http://www.torrentreactor.net>

<http://www.fenopy.com>

<http://www.torrent.ws>

Wait Some More- 10 seeds and 30 peers

<http://www.torrentdownloads.net>

<http://www.torrentmatrix.com>

<http://www.monova.org>

By now one should have a decent amount of seeds- 15 to 40 and a good amount of peers as well

Upload Now To-

<http://www.torrentbox.com>

<http://www.vektor.com>

And finally...

#.org

Demonoid.com

If you successfully upload your torrent in this order, you should see results with 500+ peers and seeds!

Happy Spreading!?

Nice post.. :)

And thanks :)

iheartboobs - February 3, 2010, 4:27 pm

hey great post and dont listen to those people that said you stole it and tweaked it what does a hacker do anyway "oh yeah he steals things and tweaks it"

next your going to get people saying well i used google first! or i made a tut on phishing ten years ago and you just took my idea and changed it around!

get real you losers, check there names for tutorials if they even have any, and i bet they had to learn it from somewhere ;)

damnative - February 3, 2010, 5:26 pm

please provide proof, and if they are the same sites and everything, then that is an amazing coincidence. like i said, i have a spreading service, paying for some stupid ebook is something id never do. although i created this tutorial, its not the only one out there. according to the flamers of this thread there are alot being sold. i didnt see this as so much of a secret since ive been usin it for over a year now. although, if anyone has ever seen mod4sale's tutorial, it is somewhat similar to mine, but no where near as many useful sites. ive already stated before that is where i got this idea... so why do three different people post saying ive gotten it from three different ebooks?

This is a great tut. How long do you usually have to wait after uploading to the first set of sites before you start to see an initial downloading stream. Yesterday i uploaded to all of the initial sites and also pirate bay just cuz wat the hell eh lol. Anyways i got around 9 seeds and 11 peers quite quickly over the space of about 2-3 hours and managed to stay on pirate bay for around six b4 being kicked off. My torrent died quickly after that but i think it's cuz it was out of date software so today i've followed the instructions to the Tee with the same popular software just the most updated version. I can see what you are saying in that growing a torrent in a way is like growing a plant. You have to do things in a certain order and in a certain way in order to achieve the maximum yield possible. And like a plant a torrent also has a life span. Untended torrents can die out quickly just like plants. So the idea is to create a snowball effect i suppose. Anyway what i wondered is how long should you leave your torrent before the first set of downloads kick in from the first set of sites? Thanks in advance, Adept.

well, after uploading to those initial sites you should see results within about 10 minutes. Although, you must have a torrent that is popular and sought after enough that it'll get fast dls; otherwise no matter how many sites u upload to ull never get more than 50 seeds.

Adept - March 9, 2010, 3:54 pm

I've got 3 seeds and 3 peers since i last posted. So i guess my software isn't that good. The thing is, all of the top softwares are like 200 mb+. Does it have to be like giant software like nero 9 and so forth in order to get the big downloads?

It is best to you suites of products and microsoft products, all over 400 mbs. With larger apps, the people downloading will remain peers and it is like a snowball effect from there. As people see the stats increase and remain large, they decide that torrent is legitimate and just add on to the already growing number. If the app's size takes 4 minutes to dl, peers will finish quickly and leave you with no peers or seeds.

Adept - March 9, 2010, 4:37 pm

Ok i put up a new torrent but i labeled it wrong cuz i was drunk yesterday nm bout that anyway. Still the torrent has got six seeds and four peers so im guna leave it up regardless then just re label it today and re upload it. Also, my other torrents from a few days ago are still active which is weird. The one has 7 seeds and four peers and the other has four seeds and four peers. The number changes constantly from hour to hour but they are not downloading off me so i assume they are downloading off eachother is that correct?

demonoid got me like 5+ dls - 10+ dls in less then 20min.. and that was just when i had like 3 seeds and 5 peers...

Adept - March 13, 2010, 1:41 am

Demonoid has closed registration haven't they? I couldn't sign up at all. Plus i am banned from piratebay i made a new login and it doesn't say banned it just says unable to login with both so perhaps deleting cookies and so forth might be the best method? Plus thank you Saiya IV you have increased my business. I thought long and hard about buying bots but thort that was skiddish a lil and then plus who can u rely on if you cant rely on urself so then thought i must learn the art of the spread. Torrent spreading is clearly the best method and after this method is perfected like you clearly have with your picture of something like 300 seeds then i will move onto the youtube spreading method. I appreciate what you have done for hackforums and if you would like to take your business to a new level and work with bhm then you would be welcome to join our group.

What we have? Four of us currently trusted on gh0stmarket. 3 botnets equating to a total of like 3000 bots and we have only bought the hosting since 23rd of last month. Also two of our offshore hosting providers from here have been down for over a week so i dunno how many more i've got from spreading using your method. We are currently in the process of moving to other hosting with one of our botnets currently already moved to which hosting company i will not discuss however it is offshore, one down and another one is going strong and has had no problems with DDOS as of yet. As long as we take the domain name to the new host then all of the bots from before will connect to it. Plus getting the old accounts is merely a matter of getting the old database tables from the last host, and then updating them on the new one. Done it b4 when we moved the bhm forum from site 11 to the new host so i think we can do it again without problem. Our members include some badass skilled hackers including a lot of ubers from hack forums. Expert monetizers including neopaladium and welshkid. Programmers including Lord_Sinister. venomxboss and Thundhack7 also are valued and skilled members of our group. We also own directvirus.com which has had 150k hits in the last week. I suppose this is an application from my group saying what we may be able to offer you if you would like to join the bhm group. We have around 4 active projects right now and perhaps 18 or so active members. Our forum is not meant to be a replication of hackforums it is merely a means of members communicating with one another so we can do business and share ideas. Plus the hosting company for the forums is owned by a member who sells hosting here on hackforums. So there are few privacy issues. Here you can see the hosting:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=291629>

4 active projects for you to either join or you can apply for a project yourself if you think there is a good idea to make money that you would wish other members to join. The process of creating a project in the group is that one member will post a thread stating their idea to make money from a project, and then other members will post to apply to be members to that project if they think that it is worth it for them to join and work on the project. So far all of our projects including starting the bhm group have been remarkably successful. And as such more and more skilled hackers and monetizers wish to join our group along the way so our group is having a snowball effect even. I will say this now. BHM is probably the best and fastest growing group on hackforums. We have been active since 10th jan and already we have i believe acheived more than any other group on hf. I have been to other group forums and they are empty. Of course this is excluding the HJT team who one day i hope to be as skilled and knowledgable as them or even our team to be that elite. But as for now, and after HJT, we are the best. If you would like to make more money with your skills. I apply for you to join The bhm Group.

marklundarn - March 13, 2010, 12:15 pm

dont you need to open the tracker's for every site,

Ex: <http://open.tracker.#.org/announce> thats for #.

my Q is do you have to write every tracker and can you tell what the trackers name are?

hardisonaa2 - March 13, 2010, 3:23 pm

I got 1 people in 3 days :(

Adept - March 13, 2010, 4:04 pm

1 person? Well in that case share what software you are using for that because you obviously have no reason to keep it a secret. Even on my unsuccessful torrents i always had like a minum of 5 seeds also going upto about 11 for around three days before i got bored of them to die so i turned them all off. You must follow the advice and instructions of the thread writer and also the people that have posted. And then you will get more efficient results. :)

(Mar 22, 2010 02:17 PM)Adept Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Ok so I now have a new question about the method. I am getting peers to begin with but it takes so long to upload to them that I imagine it would take days to reach the hundred peer and seed mark. How long should this process take and what is the best upload speed which would help to make this method the most successful it can be? An easy remedy to your issue is buying a seedbox. Although, if you want a free solution, ask a friend to dl it from you before you begin uploading so that there will be ur upload speeds and your friends combined. The more people seeding, the faster your torrent can be downloaded, and the more victims you will receive.

I didn't do something right. I download the new twilight soundtrack (no, I am NOT a fan), binded my server to the 13th song, and then added a copy of my server and the stub (both hidden) into the file. Then I made a new torrent with my files in it, along with copy and pasting the tracker info from the original torrent. I just went on btjunkie to check it and five people are seeding it, but I didn't get any PC info uploaded to my ftp site. I used a rat created by Darkmoon.

Love this tutorial, if only my file could stay FUD long enough lol...

Very annoying :) Thanks again!

if you bind a virus with a .mp3, it corrupts the virus. adding the stub isnt needed, and why add another copy of ur server? that only messes with the infection if your virus doesnt have mutex. jst minor errors that u can easily fix. also, use applications and bind your server to them, rather than attempting to spread through music, movies, or media in general.

Saiya I added you via msn but have not seen you online so far. How much is the price for 1k GB updates?

xgcbxranimal - April 24, 2010, 1:09 pm nice been looking for one of these for a while. Does anyone have a recommendation to what apps i could spread on? like anti viruses or editing software etc. thanks.

thanks dude, been looking for a solid list and in order aswell, thank you.

Adept - December 16, 2010, 1:58 pm

Hey it would be much appreciated to update the list of sites n maybe add a few more. Half of these don't work anymore. Cheers in advance, ?

jasper1 - January 1, 2011, 4:00 pm

Sounds like a nice way

In that order it would be a winner!

Krill - January 8, 2011, 5:11 am

Thanks for the tut! I'm trying this out.
