Thread: Dont earn \$10 a month, earn \$30+ a day.

syngress - April 20, 2012, 4:53 am

Simple method here, been using it for awhile. Not getting saturated, just boring with the same old customers every day.

Simple steps, stick to them and you can hit $50 a day, in just a few hours work. Follow the steps to the letter.

1. Make Fiverr Account
2. Publish your 'translation service'
3. Advertise your service on twitter, youtube, and facebook
4. Get heaps of n00bs asking for translations
5. Go to google.com/translate -> Enter text, Copy+Paste the rest
6. Send translated result to customer
7. Get 5 star rating, and $5 for a 3min job.
8. Use that $5 for more advertising
9. Rinse, repeat
10. Profit????

Enjoy.

Bumping, for more members to see this.

Suave - April 20, 2012, 7:33 am

People pay $5 for a quick translation?

?Shrewd - April 20, 2012, 7:56 am

I can acutally see this will work. Thanks for sharing.

syngress - April 20, 2012, 7:57 am

Yes they do, for essays, speeches, heaps of stuff.

SIM-1232764 - April 20, 2012, 8:49 am

Fucking genius idea, does it actually work though?

Ragdolll - April 20, 2012, 8:49 am

Hmm, ima have a look, going to try this out once i finish the episode of the walking dead.

Tech Experts - April 20, 2012, 9:25 am

ConvictionZ - April 20, 2012, 9:37 am

I'm going to give this a shot actually, might work.

Sithis - April 20, 2012, 10:35 am

I have made $200+ on fiverr with different niche. This site is a good source of income if you know what you doing.

ven0m - April 20, 2012, 10:50 am

Well it never hurts to try.

I will give it a try.

Thanks for the share.

Odin the Wanderer - April 20, 2012, 1:46 pm

cool ima try it now thanks alot :), how much have u made by this?

Ixtonylx - April 20, 2012, 2:12 pm

Damn, this sounds like a easy thing to do. I'll try it out!

Odin the Wanderer - April 20, 2012, 3:38 pm

can u put some pics up of what ur description said, i wanna know how to sound convincing ^_^. and what do u put in the "instructions to buyer" do u put ur paypal info there?

syngress - April 20, 2012, 6:58 pm

Nope, do not put your paypal in instructions to buyer, your PP will automatically be linked to your account, when they buy your service, it will be completed immediately.

Ive used this method for around 3 months now, on and off, considering I spent about $200 on advertising and the like, I made $1400 give or take. Pretty good for not much work at all ; you couldnt survive on it, but it keeps the paypal in motion.

Satisfaction - April 20, 2012, 7:11 pm

I guess I'll try this out, thanks a lot for the share mate ?

Ixtonylx - April 20, 2012, 8:03 pm

Kinda hard to get buyers and such for the method that you posted :P

syngress - April 20, 2012, 8:57 pm

Its not hard to get buyers. I used TraffikBuster to get 2000+ clicks on my add an our on twitter alone, not even talking about facebook. The customers will pool in once you've done around 10-20jobs.

So you can use a website that will flow in traffic to your website and you just put in your gig at fiverr for them to shoot the traffic to? I use a website like that.

Yeahp. Its easy shit mate, use my method and just twist it a little, you'll make bank.

Only thing that sucks about the TraffikBuster site is the program is expensive as fuck. I don't have $400 to blow but you know of any other websites that can flow traffic into my fiverr gig? The one I'm using now for some reason is giving me a hard time to submit my gig page for traffic. Thanks Yooou can use heaps of others. I saved up for TB cause its freaking insane - I use it for CPA, refferals, Adsense, traffic etcetc.

You can even just make a youtube video. Just advertise man.

BIGboy! - April 20, 2012, 9:50 pm

Gehnesis - April 20, 2012, 10:50 pm

I've been doing this for quite a while. Didn't think other people thought of doing this. :P

syngress - April 21, 2012, 2:44 am

AHaha really? I thought it was my own unique too :P You made much off it too?

Ragdolll - April 21, 2012, 3:55 am

I tired it out, but the only way to get any customers is to advertise on fb and twitter, But I dont really want to post it on my facebook, so ill try something else.

DaSpamer - April 21, 2012, 11:12 am

I've not had any luck on this method, if anyone done then let me know how you done it so you could maybe give me some tips.

dmic - April 21, 2012, 11:20 pm

Very creative. I wish I could think of things like this..

HeyGurl - April 21, 2012, 11:24 pm

If anyone is interested they can refer people too my companies website -

<http://forgetaboutitenterprises.com> - and for every paying client I will pay them $100USD. It's a business web solution company called "business solutions" which specialises in website design and development.

Private message me if your interested.

As far as this method goes, I think it might be worth a shot as long as people don't realise that google translation is free..

chris0147 - April 23, 2012, 6:49 pm

hey shadow, i got questions. i want to know how many mins did it take you to make $30 in one day?

if i can make $30 for less than 15 mins then i will definately going to try it out.

let me know if it still works. :)
