Thread: [How to get free XBox Controllers, Cellphones and much more\[AUTOPILOT\]](#)

RvsK - January 23, 2010, 8:57 am

Yes you heard right! FREE stuff! Autopilot!

NOTE: Alot of people wonder why this still works when the thread was made in 2010, the answer to that is that i have updated the link to download whenever there was realeased a new version of CLDL

Step 1. Register at hotmail account if you don't have one already.

Step 2. Go to <http://clubbing.com> and set up your Club Bing account with your hotmail account.

Step 3. Download CLDL v1.32 Here

Step 4. After you extract the file you download open the .exe. Go to options >> accounts and add your account. Then click File >> Begin

You can only get about 500 tickets a day per account. 360 controllers are 9000 tickets, so in some days you can have a 360 controller.

There is also Nokia Mobiles, GPS's, Microsoft Earphones and much more!

Also you can run CLDL sanboxed so you can play multiple games on the same account.

Sadly this is U.S Only.

If you leech this tutorial give me credit.

Last time confirmed working: 17-07-2011

idk if I trust this (too short)

Drumbtr - January 23, 2010, 5:42 pm

It does not want to work for some reason. It will load everything, get into a game, then get the letters, and when it searches, it always fails, then just sits there.

MrR00tx - January 23, 2010, 6:57 pm

seems a little fishy

apl_L33t® - January 23, 2010, 7:44 pm

Well over at CN CLDL seems to be the way to go right now but i dont trust this link.. probably binded.. maybe not though

But.. CB is a great money making site with a good bot travis8_8 - February 2, 2010, 4:31 pm

I started off with CLAW, but there were too many bugs. CLDL isn't as fast I don't think, but it's a lot better. I have like 10000 points when I realized it was US only. :D
I live in Canada.

RvsK - February 6, 2010, 2:13 am

To everyone that thinks its a virus cause of MediaFire
I got it from # and shared with a friend, he said it was overloaded (saying: Try again in a few minutes)
I uploaded to Mediafire cause its the beast!

If you don't trust, dont download! Just you're fault that you cant have all the cool stuff.

And as you can see theres already a few there got it working!
you'll get 1k a day. if you start in the morning.

Remember to register your hotmail at clubbing before you type your details in CL what should i type in the limit box??

when it starts entering the letters, the game closes and goes back to the Club Bing homepage. It keeps doing that every single time.

Type 5000 or so in limit box.

Does it go to the game enters right letters and go back and starts over again? if so your doing it right.

This DOES work. If you log out when you hit the homepage you need to click on one of the tabs at the top until the homepage is fully loaded. It happens because your connection is obviously too slow to load the homepage fast enough and it thinks the login failed so when it starts to load the homepage click one of the tabs at the top and keep it open(It stops the countdown) until the homepage loads then click off the tab and it'll continue to countdown again and will work.

I've seen this tutorial as well somewhere else,anyhow this website is only for U.S addresses;

Where can you ship to?

The user can provide any physical address in the U.S. Delivery to P.O. Boxes, APO and FPO Addresses are not supported. This includes the 50 States and District of Columbia only.

Nice tutorial tho ;)

For the people with the "stupid cat question" just exit the bot and then go to the website and play the game then answer the "stupid cat question".

the stupid cat question comes back after you answer it like in 10 minutes after you answer it has anyone actually recieved anything from this.? also the controller now cost 9500 so will take twice as long to do.

also for the cat question click pause answer the question hit submit then un pause should be good for 10-15 minutes

This happens like once every 10-15min.

Step 1. Register at hotmail account if you don't have one already.

Step 2. Go to <http://clubbing.com> and set up your Club Bing account with your hotmail account.

Step 3. Download CLDL v1.32 Here

Step 4. After you extract the file you download open the .exe. Go to options >> accounts and add your account. Then click File >> Begin

You can only get about 1000 tickets a day per account. 360 controllers are 4500 tickets, so in 4 days you can have a 360 controller.

There is also Nokia Mobiles, GPS's, Microsoft Earphones and much more!

Also you can run CLDL sanboxed so you can play multiple games on the same account.

This is U.S Only.

If you leech this tutorial give me credit.

There are certain Club Bing programs specifically designed to use a service known as "Decaptcher." What you do is load $10+ which will solve around 2,000-3,000 cat captchas (ASIRRA). This makes the program 100% AFKable and is inexpensive. I used be friends with one of the CLDL designers on a website called Truecheaters a few years ago when Club Bing was more alive.

Master Yoda - July 17, 2011, 5:46 pm

Can you post a link to such a program? I have 88 points but at his point it keeps going straight to the cats. Is there a one time free or subscription based? I found this thread which seems legit

I was actually reading more about this topic and a read some people who posted emails from bing stating their order was canceled because it is against the terms & conditions to use a bot amongst other rules that were listed. So they must know this occurs but im unsure of how they would identify who actually is using the program.... Ill check for that link.

^Info on that decapther program previously stated which charges to identify cats if anybody is intereste (i have not used this program)

Ok I found it Quote:Hello,

This is in response to your email regarding Club Bing.

Thank you for contacting Club Bing Support. We regret to inform you that any pending prize orders submitted by this account have been canceled because it does not conform to the Club Bing Terms and Conditions governing the program.

Our research indicates that you or your Club Bing account has engaged in one or more violations of the Club Bing Terms of Use, which may include, but is not limited to:

i don't advise to donate to the creators since they haven't had any updates for like 3-4 months.

if you buy decaptcher credits the whole program will run by itself till you maxed out the 500 ticket limit. in other words you dont have to keep looking for the cats.
