X-Core - April 28, 2012, 3:30 am

Hi guys,

Sorry i've have had to take this link down as it is against the HF rules to supply dumps of passwords.

PM me if you would like the link.

Thanks for the share man this might come in handy with my bruteforce program.

TheGrayAviator - April 28, 2012, 6:56 am

Skullsecurity is definitely a good one, there are a couple more, I used to create my dictionary file with. Will try to find them and will post them in here.

X-Core - April 28, 2012, 8:06 pm

No problems, hope you enjoy the word lists, i was searching for a bit to get good lists.

Ak74 - April 28, 2012, 10:07 pm

The only time I would need this is when my internet is down, so I could use my neighbors internet.

Dr.Kosm0s - April 29, 2012, 1:20 am

Thumbs up! Nothing like a brute force attack. Thanks.

Tech Experts - April 29, 2012, 1:24 am thanks a lot i really like this big vouch for you :) <3 buddy enjoy

iShat - April 29, 2012, 4:19 am
