Thread: Best Keylogger Software:Max Keylogger

Ottoman Empire - April 29, 2012, 1:15 am

For the past few weeks I have been busy testing keylogger softwares. There are a lot of keyloggers available on internet and selecting a best is indeed a difficult task. If you are also looking for a keylogger that tracks each key stroke, send reports to emails, take screenshots, is undetectable and copy text from clipboard then Max Keylogger is best for you.

Are Keyloggers Legal To Use?

Keyloggers are usually associated with hacking but this is not the case. It is completely legal to use keyloggers to monitor activity of employees, children and other people using your computers.

Different People can have Different Purposes For using a Keylogger

To System administrators:

Keylogger could help you clearly know about what have been displayed in the system. protect yourself know everything they do on your computer.

To CEOs:

The computers in your company are under your full control with Max Keylogger. You will be clear about all your employees' performances or actions anyone using your official computer. Max Keylogger protect your business.

To Parents:

You could follow up all programs your children have run. And find out what they have search on the Internet. Protect your children from online dangers.

To All Users:

Be able to build a full control on your own PC with Max Keylogger. Besides you will be clear about what was run and when, what text was typed, etc. on your PC in your absence. Using the program constantly, you will be able to restore the previously typed text in case you have lost it. With the help of Max Keylogger, you also could restore the forgotten password or the lost email.

To Computer Classes and Internet Cafes:

Max Keylogger will let you know what the users have been doing on the computers.

Key features Of Max Keylogger

Stealth:-Max keylogger is completely undetectable from Task manager, Taskbar as well as Add/Remove Menu in control panel.

It can only be opened using a special key combination and cannot be uninstalled without password.

Remote Reporting:-It is one of the best and most useful feature of Max Keylogger. You can specify and Email id and interval time after which reports will be automatically sent on your email id which includes system screenshots.

I have tested it with Gmail ID and it works perfectly fine.

Organization:-You will notice a clean interface with easy to navigate icons. It has all the options along with notifications on home screen. See the screenshot below
