D3xus's Upgrade Contest 4: Normal - L33t | L33t - Ub3r

Welcome to my 4th upgrade contest for any normal or L33t member to win an upgrade to L33t or Ub3r. This contest won't be like others. It will be unique in it's own right.

How do I win?

This is a contest that doesn't require a lot of skill. Just time and energy.

You need to answer one simple question, provided you already meet the requirements. The catch is that you can't use the word "High Quality" or any abbreviation thereof anywhere in your answer.

Why can't I talk about me being HQ?

To say you are "high quality" is to put a boundary or roof on your knowledge. Once you are "high quality," you would stop learning or absorbing knowledge. "High quality" is simply a label people use on things to categorize people who they like (or don't like.) The same thing goes for "low quality." Just a label. Plus, I want to see how many people can answer a question about themselves without using "high quality" or any conjunction of it.

So what is the full list of words I can't use?

There are more than this, but once you get the basic words, it should be obvious what you can and can't say.

Banned words \(Click to View\)

Low quality

This is subject to change.

Requirements

Still with me? Here are the requirements.

Must have 500 posts

Must be 15 years of age or older.

All reputation will be reviewed, be it negative or positive.

No scam reports, even if they are resolved.

Member of HF for 1 year.

No warning level.

Prestige of 25 or more.

The Question

Why do you deserve ub3r/l33t over all other members?

I hope to see some interesting responses. Good luck.

DashPHP - May 3, 2012, 11:47 am

That's upsetting, I can't enter the competition and I was quite exited for a free upgrade :/

Ohwell, good luck to who ever wins! -

I do think that your requirements are a bit harsh! :(

D3xus - May 3, 2012, 12:21 pm

I don't want new members getting a free upgrade. I want people who have been with HF for a while and know their stuff.

I love the twist. It really makes people truly consider what their writing. Nice upgrade ?

JustHayden - May 3, 2012, 1:33 pm

Well let me be the first to enter this contest!

I have to be honest, I am not more deserving than a lot of the members on hackforums, but I do think I deserve an upgrade. When I first joined hackforums back in 2009, I was one of those annoying little 14 year olds you see all over hackforums and pissed a lot of people off, which is where most of my negatives came from. But over time I matured and became a better member around hackforums, and helped a lot of people out. Hackforums has helped me out a lot over various different things like grammar, respect...etc. I have been very active lately, and will be looking for ways to contribute daily.

Nice requirements too, I'm sure you'll see some very qualified members take part in this contest!

Also I do have one resolved scam report, but it was someone else pretending to be me, was not actually me.

n00b.ca - May 3, 2012, 2:09 pm

Spoiler (Click to View) Some members here have a misconception of upgraded members being annoying people who abuse their powers and responsibilities. On the flip side of the coin, some upgraded members think that normal members are "skids" who know nothing and are "pathetic fools". I would like to change that misconception by showing people that an upgraded member isn't all that special rather an equal person. I intend to show to normal members that I am humble and respectful regardless of forum status. I will give equal respect to normal and upgraded members alike. Also, if I ever become an upgraded member I will show to normal members that upgraded members are not stuck up people and can be quite pleasant to be with. Also, I believe with respect shouldn't be bought but earned. That is why I did not buy myself leet. I want someone to say that I deserve to be an upgraded member and I am worthy. Hopefully you see me that way. Besides my belief, I can also stand up for normal members who are abused and scammed regularly. I have dealt with many scam reports and helped members recover and give tips to them as well. I offer many forms of advice and tend to help almost everyone in this community so that it will be a better and safer place for all. All this would be possible if I was given the opportunity of being upgraded.

Side note: I realize I have not been on HF for more than a year. You may feel free to disqualify me at anytime during this competition, but I would like to enter regardless because I feel as I have done a lot in the short time I've been on HF.

Count me out, I already got upgraded :D

I have been an active member of this forum for about 3 years and plan on being here a lot longer. I regularly help people out in the beginners hacking section regardless of post count or rep. I would say that I am a nice and helpful person and will continue to be this way. I would really love to be upgraded as I desperately need more pm space and would like control over my threads. Check my posts and reputation to see how I have helped people out with their problems.

Vouch for D3xus has a great member, and good friend of mine!

NOOB5029 - May 6, 2012, 12:16 am

I will not say, that I'm "High Quality" I never have. I've helped many people, within the iPhone/iOS

Section of HackForums. I came to the site when i was 16. Now Im 18, and still doing what I can for my community,I even sent Omni a PM about how this community has helped bring much of my present success. I disregard any for of compensation for my help is , a +rep isn't much when you know you did your job to the best of your abilities. Of course im not online as often anymore, due to major exams, but im bound to be on much more once school is over. But beyond that is beyond the point.

I feel that I'd deserve an upgrade to better help out the "new kid" who actually posted something worthy, or actually great enough give a notch, because im sure that any of us could say "I'd help the new kid-for sure!" but how many of us would do it? I can stand by what I say, and I sure my fellow brothers and sisters here on HF can as well. I truly hope that who earns the upgrade will put the use to good. I dont deserve an upgrade more than anyone else. Good luck to everyone.

(Im on my mobile, so I'll probably edit this,sorry)

Mutes - May 7, 2012, 6:20 pm

Personally, I don't believe any one person deserves more than anyone else. I mean sure, some of us have worked harder, so yes, they should come out with more than anyone else, but who's to say they deserve it? They could be horrible people, but just fortunate. Anyways, I feel that I should have this upgrade because I've been a member since 2009, and ever since, I've tried to contribute as best as I can. I mean, I don't have a paypal or anything, so it's really hard for me to contribute, but I've found some other ways, and done my best. I feel that this upgrade will allow me to keep contributing, and increase my knowledge in ways that can be used to help other members. This is really all I can say. I have limited resources, so there's not much I can do. I'm working on finding other ways to contribute, and I feel having this upgrade will do that.

Thank you for the contest, and for reading this.

Wizart - May 7, 2012, 9:06 pm

I would consider myself worthy of your upgrade, or contest, because I am fairly useful to helping people. My philosophy is; you can't judge new members for asking questions. They want to learn and be like you, as you have grown from being them. Now, I don't believe in the way UB3R's think they can treat people, like if you offend them, they just neg. rep you. I honestly don't care about my rep, but I know it builds people to know that they are doing something right and they deserved that positive rep they got, even if it was just a +1. I have grown from being a lurker, to still being shy and quiet, but now I post and I participate in conversations. Hell, I even made a little business here of selling eBooks!

Once I started making money from my sales, I saved up, bought a few things, and bought L33T. I have to say, it was one of the most amazing feelings in my life knowing I worked to get that, and at that moment, I started to realize that "this is how it is going to be for the rest of my life". I am 18, and just starting to get the hang of life itself, but I love it! I wake up every morning, have a cup of coffee, and sit outside if I want to! I may sound old, but in reality, my life has just begun.

TL;DR:

I have grown and I deserve the award not because I don't have the money, but I want to work for it, and make someone realize that "Hey, this guy really is chill".

Thanks for listening, hope you pick me :)

Adnane359 - May 8, 2012, 12:27 am

Hello,

First of all i want to say thank you for being so nice and giving us the chance to be upgraded, it is nice of you to think of others.

Now let's get to the question, Why do i deserve l33t over all other members?

I won't say that i do deserve l33t over all members since i think and i am sure that there are others that deserves it more than i do, but what i can say that is since i joined HF or any other community online, my primary goal was to help that community to grow bigger and bigger, in this case "HackForums".

How to i do that ? simple, i try to help them with something that i am sure that i can handle it, in this case it would be graphics, i love to work with Photoshop and pretty much helped a lot of members with their graphic needs (as you can see in my reputation points).

Somethings that makes me special is that i am always nice to people, i hate being mean to others, i won't say i am an HQ member because of two things, the first is that no ones judges himself, and second of all because its not allowed to be used in this upgrade contest (: .

I was inactive towards HF for a long time and its because of school, i have a big exam on the 18/06/2012, i'm just waiting to pass that exam so i could come back to help others, the first thing i would like to do is create some Facebook Timenline cover layouts since a lot of people asked me for that, example for a layout : <http://www.hongkiat.com/blog/creative-facebook-timeline-covers/> but i am pretty sure that i can make them as soon as possible and release them only to HF members (: .

My final word would be : Thank you very much to giving me the chance to participate in this contest, i hope you pick me, and may the best win.

???? - May 8, 2012, 2:25 am

I would like to become l33t because I have been a member for about a year now, I am helpful and respected by many people. I am very high quality and definitely over 15 years of age. I have helped the community in many ways, such as free giveaways of Netflix accounts and ebooks as well as just handing out a tip when someone needs it, I am gramatically correct and take criticisms well. I would like l33t because it would help me expand my learning capabilities on this site as well as allow me to help other people.

These are my reasons, thank you for reading.

Demonnator

ryhailey - May 8, 2012, 2:36 am

I think I deserve it because, I will always help people in any way I can and if I can't I will try to point them in the right direction, I have also contributed by donating money to this amazing community by hosting cash contests and donating straight to the forum. Although I have not been doing this lately because I have been laid off but I now have a new job so once I catch up on bills I will start donating once again.

Ps. Thanks for hosting this great contest .

I have to admit this, there is no short way to say that I deserve an upgrade. So, I'll keep it long and detailed. Please bear with me.

Spoiler (Click to View) I have to admit this, there is no short way to say that I deserve an upgrade. So, I'll keep it long and detailed. Please bear with me.

I started out like many members, wanted to something cool and stumbled upon HackForums. That was how I started, I wanted to know how to hack facebook accounts and such. I searched "How to hack facebook" on google and one of the links happened to be a tutorial on HF. I followed the tutorial and it didn't work. So I pretty much gave up. I looked around HF and saw some pretty cool tutorials and posts. So as of that day, I decided to join and read more about these tutorials, threads, and posts. I suddenly became fascinated with computers, hacking, and gaming. It was like I opened a door in a small house but instead of a small room, I found a whole universe. That was the beginning.

I started posting around and exploring every bit of HF. One of the first tutorials or guides I read was how to become a hacker by Eminent. It was well written and very detailed. That was my motivation at that time, so I tried contributing and learning as much as I could. My contributions in the beginning were pretty much copy and pasted from all kinds of sources. But I did learn a lot. So I kept posting my useless(at the time they seemed as if I was changing the world) questions, ideas and contributions. I did get flamed a lot and many people called me a noob and a script kiddie. Which was a very accurate judgement. So from that day on, I decided to change. I started to learn how to program in vb.net, so that I could make programs for the community. I made many programs that were pretty unique at the time. But I was afraid of releasing them due to the fact that I was afraid of being flamed and criticized. So I never released them.

Till one day, there was this coder who needed help with his crypter which was coded in vb.net. I helped him and suggested features, improvements and ideas. His response was pretty positive and motivated me to keep doing what I do. From that moment on I decided I can help people with their projects especially crypters. So I enrolled in various crypter projects, many of them died off as they decided to quit. But my "obsession" with crypters never died off. With this fascination with crypters, I even started a premium crypting service for everyone. Till this day, I still actively help people with their crypters, crypting problems, rat help, rat setup, etc. I am currently enrolled in JeromeMarshall's beta testing.

One day, I was browsing the member contest section. I thought to myself it would be pretty cool to be upgraded. So I applied to many different contests. I won my L3t upgrade by Reactionz in his upgrade contest. It was pretty cool to be upgraded. Then it suddenly hit me, being an upgraded member has its responsibility and power. But what about helping other people. So I made some free giveaways like Free VPNs, Icon Packs, Crypter Sources, Wallpapers and still continued to help and assist people with their malware crypting issues. There are still many more tutorials, giveaways and contests to come.

In closing, I would like to say this. Yes, I have been a noob, script kiddie, etc etc for most of the time I've been on HF. But that's all changed, I am more helpful, respectful and more contributing than ever before. I have learned many things that a normal 14 year old would not have such as programming in various languages, penetration testing, cracking, malware removal, malware creation, game design, game programming, and the list goes on. Many people that have contributed to my overall HF persona, I would list them if I could but the list would either be too long, or I would forget someone, or the post character limit would exceed. So the only thing left to answer is why should I be upgraded. I believe I should be upgraded because I know once I am ub3r I can give even more back to this forum who taught me everything I know about computers, who changed my personality for the better and even made me smarter in daily life. With this change comes great power and knowledge. I intend to share this with everyone who really want it and help guide beginners to the right path so they will learn more efficiently without going through my experiences. I believe I've changed for the better.

And that my dear readers, was my story.

Proof of Acceptance: Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I would really love to be upgraded. I've always been a great member, before I was downgraded I hosted a BIG giveaway for my 1000th post. I didn't get downgraded for my behavior but the person who upgraded me before got banned and reversed the payment. :/ really crappy situation... but anyways... I really just want to be upgraded again, I loved being on the BLUE side, and I really appreciate this contest. Good luck to everyone!

This could be my chance to get upgraded:D

I Think I deserve this because I have been a member of this site for quite some time and I have always wanted L3t but don't have money or anything , I have entered many contests and never won any. I also want L3t so I can go to the VIP section and see what that is, I feel I could give stuff back to the people that have been nice to me for the time I have been here. Also I will make tuts if I get this because it will motivate me to give back to the other members. I can help people with a variety of stuff and I will donate if I ever get money in my PayPal which I doubt will ever happen but you never know. I'm kind to everyone, I never troll and I'm very respectful, I try to help out as much as I can. I want to +rep the people that have helped me in the past and give back to the people who were nice and kind to me when I just got here.

The last most important reason I want to be L33T , is to close threads.. That would be so helpful and amazing!

Also, I will keep your name in my Sig for lifetime<3

Thanks for giving everybody a chance for winning this contest! Good luck everybody!

Why i should win? Well i guess cause i contribute to HF alot, especially the computer hardware section. I still have much to learn, however i do wish to have ub3r. I try to give back to the community in whatever way i can, e.g. Im currently in the process of writing a guide on building computers, along with builds with about 6 other members, the guide would be released in a few days max. People also say im polite. I have never scammed anyone (Nor do i ever intend to). Oh and, i also help creating some simpler graphics for people.

Here's proof that i was accepted for ub3r

This is a really nice thing you are doing for members here :)

"Why do you deserve ub3r/l33t over all other members?"

Well, its not that anyone else isnt just as deserving as I am, there are a lot of great people here on HF, and there are alot of people who deserve this.

Simply put, I just do my best to be a nice guy, no matter how people treat me back.

I have a positive outlook on life and think its great to share that with others.

Since joining a year ago, there has been so much knowledge i have gained on this forum I cant even begin to describe to you. Its helped me achieve great things in life like my A+ certification, as well as other computer knowledge I never would have been able to gain otherwise. I've taken that knowledge and applied it in real life and taught others.

Its a great community to be in, and after being upgraded I just want to continue to share the same sense of belonging, positivy, and kindness others show, as well as the positivy I show.

Thanks for doing this and I hope i'm picked!

This is the best contest ever with the best rule ever. You can use the word "HQ"... :D

Spoiler (Click to View)

I deserve this because I'm an old member. Have been here for more than 1 year. Have great & some bad experience in HF, sweet memories, friends, partners to work with. I'm 15, I've contributed to HF by some of my Guides & tutorials. Also I held a Free give away with 140 replies & 5-7 vouches. I'm co0L, friendly & help around a lot too. ^_^

Hikki - May 30, 2012, 8:49 pm

I should be upgraded because I'm a very friendly and helping guy. Im also planning to make a huge thread on RAT'ing in which all the tutorials would be posted like How to setup RAT [famous rats like cybergate, bs , dc]

Also I have very less space in my PM inbox. I want to increase the space so that I dont need to again and again delete previous messages and the other members can PM me. I'll be always posting Tutorials as many people learn from them and also I always post tutorials with Pics. With pics it becomes easier to understand. Other thing is I want to put Images in my signature but as I'm a normal member I can't do it :(.

I have contributed many things to HF. I have also opened a Free Userbar service for members.

As I'm also good in RATING , I give help to those who cant find the solution and/or are hung up somewhere. [Mostly Port Forward]

Also I have 1 money making ebook give away. Made by me. Which is also FREE.

Wish all good luck :Di

@Creator

You See My Posts Are Not Much As You Said But I Can Do Much Better On HF. I Mostly Give Away People On HF. Since The First Day I Am Giving Away People. Sometimes I Think To Earn Money But Then It Dosent Works For Me. My Reputation Se Good According To The Posts and the giveaway's i made.

The Reason I Need This Upgrade is simple ;D I need HF to know me more. I will give people more than i can. I basically deal in facebook likes and twitter followers. That's all i've got. But I could give more on HF by finding out some tricks. I'll even make some good Tutorials.

Let Me Know If I Have Any Chances On Upgrade Please.

Thank You :)

I am not sure if this contest is still going on since the thread has not been closed, but here is my proof of acceptance to Ub3r. Spoiler (Click to View)

[img]http://img594.imageshack.us/img594/489/ub3r.png[/img]

I believe I deserve Ub3r because I have been on this site for more than a year now and I am an active member who has learned a great deal from this forum. I always try to be open minded and make sure to post wisely throughout the site. I help new members in securing their accounts, whether it be emails, gamertags, or aim sn's, while teaching them how to stay safe when dealing. I am always polite and courteous to other members and am glad to help anyone out. I have held about eight contests or so, and have given away over 70+ emails to several members. I have never scammed anyone and continue to do fair transactions with other people. Also, I will not abuse the power of the upgrade, while I have been scammed by multiple Ub3r members and know how it feels. I would greatly appreciate the upgrade to Ub3r and thank you for this awesome opportunity.

WishBone - June 30, 2012, 6:09 pm

I may not have what it takes against other members for an upgrade but I can say that I am humble. I was raised that way and I don't have that typical cockiness and "Im a tough guy IRL" attitude online. With that, I can say I will never become some cocky douche even when I become successful both online and real life. I am also very persistent when it comes to my goals. Right now, it's to earn a steady income online(since I spend lots of time online) so I can help pay for my college tuition and maybe buy a new desktop PC due to the fact that I've been using this same PC for 7 years. It's been years since I've bought something new for myself including new clothes so I think I deserve it.

I have done a few giveaways lately from what resources I have. I plan to make ebooks or reports once I start earning good and give back to the HF community. I have been accepted into Foolish and I plan on buying my upgrade myself. But I have been earning quite slow compared to other new members and I still need to come up with a good method. With this upgrade, I should be able to get access to better material and resources as well as good ebooks and methods and earn more.

I try my best to be as HQ as possible in all of my posts. As I am still new IMO, I would say I can offer a lot more in the monetizing community as I have been. I haven't started earning good money yet so I have almost nothing to teach except help people get accepted in networks that require applications. But if I win, this upgrade is going to get me access to more resources and help me achieve that goal and give back to the community.

You Just Got Sarged - June 30, 2012, 8:52 pm

I consider myself to be a very friendly user and I'm always willing to help other members in need.

I have authored two guides entitled "All Computer Protection and Security Alerts Tutorials" and "All Overclocking, and Hardware Tutorials".

I also co-authored the guide "Ultimate Guide to Building and Overclocking computers with 20+ builds" and created the post "Custom PC Service".

I am well experienced with computer builds and have assisted numerous other members in their builds.

I have zero Negative rep that I attribute to my ability to provide useful and accurate information while refraining from needless chatter.

I am conscience to only posting high quality responses. Additionally, I am a firm believer in giving back to the community.

If I am successful in achieving an upgrade, it will only be for the purposes of editing my posts and expanding my mail box to better serve the community.

Closing this. Will find the lucky person within two weeks.
