Thread: Console Ban Accounts \(Ban ANYONE! on Xbox 360\)

Juicy - May 4, 2012, 7:05 am

Currently 3 in stock!!!! HURRY!!!

Hello HF, Today I will be selling a Console banning service. How exactly this is done, will be explained later. But not everything that is required.

How it works: -I provide a Brand New account, just created, with a 1 month and 1600, or 4000 Microsoft Points. When the victim recovers, their console is banned within 2-7 days. After they recover, they can delete, send to someone else, etc... No matter what, their console has been marked for ban. The console, and every account on their xbox is banned till: 12/31/9999

What this comes with:

Spoiler (Click to View)[img]http://ttgdime.com/dimegrab/images/904980.png[/img]

-When you purchase, I will send the account to your victim, unless you buy the full account.

How I obtain these, and how can I guarantee they will work: -These accounts come straight from Microsoft themselves, they are actually meant to catch me in something that I do, but after falling for it once, I am smart enough not to again. Microsoft adds the live and Microsoft points as a lure for the people they are attempting to catch the person in action. I can guarantee these work because they come straight from MS themselves to do the dirty work, if they don't work, I will refund.

STOCK:

I currently have 2 in stock, I will be getting more soon.

Cost:

$20: A one console ban, you do not get control of the account, I will get the target of your choice to recover.

$40: Re-usable console bans, You will have full access to the account, Microsoft bans every console this comes in contact with. You get to send to whoever you wish. This is unlimited, ban as many as you want!!!

Disclaimer: I am not responsible for what you do with these, I will not replace any consoles, and I will not give refunds unless proof is shown that it did not work. If you choose to recover on your console for some strange reason, it is your problem.

Winterfell - May 4, 2012, 7:08 am

This looks very promising I don't have XBL so I don't know if this works

Ajhusshi - May 4, 2012, 7:09 am

So basically this is like that checker board map that was in black ops file shares? If you load that image your console will freeze until you restart it.

That means they can no longer access xbox live.

But if the accounts are banned why isn't the account you provide also banned?

Because the account is issued from microsoft, they are watching it, and when it is recovered the console is flagged as well as any other accounts associated with it. Microsoft knows not to ban this one, its hard to explain.

Huge vouch for this guy, he sells great products.

Allergy - May 8, 2012, 2:06 pm

The question is how do you get them to recover the account, I would never do that if a random stranger asked me to recover their account.

$40 to pretty much screw anybody over for their console, seems like nice price :)

Good luck with sales mate, I'm sure this comes in handy a lot

Monday - May 8, 2012, 8:01 pm

Lmao, This would be so much better than just DDoSing someone... Only problem would be getting them to recover your account.

"Hey, Faggot, you stole my fucking care package!!!
But, do you want a free account? :D"

BlackHops - May 8, 2012, 8:57 pm

Seems like an interesting product, it's kind of a dick move but glws.

Kink - May 8, 2012, 9:29 pm

I'm guessing they are just accounts you found in a phishing scheme. Nonetheless, I think it's a smart idea on Microsoft's end but they really didn't think it through, good luck with sales OP.

Law - May 8, 2012, 9:43 pm

So 40$ and we can ban as many consoles as we want.
Will this ever get saturated?

iDuL - May 8, 2012, 10:33 pm

Wow. Amazing. I would definitely buy this if I had the money.

User is legit, has my vouch.

ezeeprofit - May 9, 2012, 1:56 am

Penthos - May 9, 2012, 1:59 am

I guess you would tell them you giving away the account

DNXNL - May 9, 2012, 1:15 pm

Hey man, could you contact me please?

-DNXNL

Responsibility - May 9, 2012, 9:21 pm

You catch these accounts in your phishing logs dont you.. its by chance that M$ decides to input the login details.

Gizzmo - May 10, 2012, 12:06 am im pmed you mate about console ban

thankyou :D

LulleBulle - May 10, 2012, 1:22 am

How would you persuade a person to recover it? People aren't that dumb that they'd just recover a 1600 MSP acc that they've recieved from a random person, it's not enough points to be that attractive.

xPORNxSTARx - May 10, 2012, 7:35 am

this is so messed up anyway. I've had two consoles banned for firmware. this just annoys me that your trying to make a couple bucks off costing someone $200. It perminetly ruins the xbox, and what over someone standbying you, not justified imo.

Someone who bought my account used it to get back at someone who owed £3,000 to the guy, it can be used for big payback.

Oh come on, you know these 14 year old kids on xbl that you sell this to aren't doing 4000$ transactions, Im going to stop now, I'm not trying to ruin your thread I just want to warn people that this shouldn't be taken lightly and if the victim has enough time to sit on the phone with Microsoft, you could be the one in trouble. This is definetly illegal.

Ghostable - May 10, 2012, 10:22 am xPORNxStarx, This isn't illegal, it's Microsoft's fault not the person who gave the other person the account. SMH (People these days).

/Ghostable

xPORNxSTARx - May 10, 2012, 11:50 am

Why is Microsoft banning the account? (this is my assumption at least) I think that you are buying points on the website with a bad credit card or someone else's(basically carding but getting caught on purpose), and entering the wrong information like zip code or something that sets off a red flare to Microsoft. When the accounts recovered onto the persons Xbox, Microsoft investigates and goes through a process that takes a couple days - then banned.

Just sayin.. You can't explain obviously because your selling it

EDIT: I was informed about method, I take back what I said about it being illegal, still messed up though.

BuckNasty - May 10, 2012, 12:57 pm

This will not get their console banned if someone else recovered it. They console ban not for the history of the consoles the tag has been on, but the last/current one it is on. All your doing is carding codes and putting them on a dummy profile. Pretty self explanatory.

Try a 28 year old guy who doesn't play Xbox.

His friends family business was going down, and would be shut down without £3,000.

He loaned him that, and the guy paid back £2,100 but still owes him TE rest. He refuses to pay it.

He has done multiple things to the guy, and he onl plays Xbox now. So the guy who bought is going to console ban the guy.

And thank you mister officer, my actions are my choice.

Absolutely wrong, has nothing to do with credit cards at all. It isn't illegal either.

As I have already said 10 times, NO CARDING AT ALL.

You don't know the method, it bans every console due to the nature.

You are an idiot.

Actually yes. I have banned 10+ wit one account.

And you call me poor, but I make 300+ every day.

How much do you make? The $5 your parents give you for lunch money?
