thanks for this TUT !

?Cooldude? - January 31, 2010, 12:54 pm

Thanks for this tutorial. Is there anyway you could upload the background picture, as I don't have photo shop installed.

Cryptic - January 31, 2010, 12:55 pm

Props to you, this is very nice! :)

samurai-hacker - January 31, 2010, 1:06 pm

loved it thanks man

You can also use Paint.net or Gimp. thier both free and good.

xCocaine - July 23, 2010, 1:10 am

Ok i try with gimp, but i really sux ..

Dwayne Johnson - July 23, 2010, 3:44 am

Seriously? How many threads are you going to gravedig. This idea for a GUI is terrible anyway. Using images, as simple as it is, also makes the program huge. Try using GDI. It is easier, cleaner, smaller, and just better.
