What is Squirtle Squad?

This will be a group dedicated to Pokémon. This will be a very simple group, and if you play Pokémon and have a good application, I will probably accept you. There have been a few groups like this, but this is the most active and most recent.

Welcome to the new Squirtle Squad. This group has not been active for a very long time, and now that I have a lot of time on my hands, I'd like to get some activity going. I check everyone's usernames, and updated those who changed theirs. If you're reading this and no longer wish to be a part of the group, contact me. All applicants are also up to date on their status with the group.

I will be looking for a new leader, as I do not have a computer, and a lot of people will be involved in the group. We will most likely have a Pokémon help desk, which will be run by a lot of members if they feel like it.

We will soon have a Skype chat, and hopefully more. We are still as welcoming as ever, and if you don't meet the requirements, apply anyway.

I have not yet decided on the leader, as I am unsure of who is and isn't active on the group, but if you see this and wish to help me out a ton with the group, contact me.

What is your favorite type and why? : Water, because it's super effective (see what I did there lol?).

What is your favorite Pokemon and why? : Blastoise, ever since I was like four I loved him.

What is your favorite Pokemon game and why: Ruby, just the memories.

Why do you wish to join this group? : Because Soulmate has to be the chilliest member. Plus I like Squirtles and pokemon so it's all good.

TradeMark™ - May 12, 2012, 9:08 pm

Name/Alias: TradeMark™/Crotchzapper

Age: 16

What is your favorite type and why? Fire & dragon pokémon. I like them because of their brutality, intense power and appearance. The brutality/intense power is the strength these pokémon have against others and in my opinion are by far the strongest types upon being one form. There appearance is very attracting with beauty from the spitting fire from their body's or wings which is why I also love those types. Finally because there techniques are very good as well.

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? My favourite pokémon is Pikachu and Squirtle. The reason why I like Pikachu so much is because since I began to watch pokémon he was at first the most stubborn thing imaginable and then became into the loving pokemon that is one of my favourites. The reason why I like Squirtle is because of the way he is very humorous in most of the videos and especially from the video with the Squirtle squad video which I loved.

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why? Well to get to my favourite game I'd need to explain them. Be prepared to read everyone. Spoiler \(Click to View\) Red, Blue, yellow.

I loved when I first got red version and I even remember starting with a charmander and such. I then got yellow and like everyone else starting with the pikachu and doing what you gotta do then. I really liked how at the end you could go to the top of mt.silver and fight red and he had the top level pokémon like all the starters, (1st gen) and a level 88 snorlax and 90+ pikachu. I also remember fighting yellow @ the first town in the mini gym where you could fight random players and meeting blue @ Cinnabar Island and almost catching every pokémon back then.

I then moved onto the next generation of pokémon with the Johto region when I bought pokémon gold with my own money and started with Cyndquil as I really like fire pokémon and statistic's even show that the fire pokémon are the strongest but are the hardest to train/take the longest to train. The story line in that wasn't as good but I did enjoy the team rocket games within it. I did manage to obtain all pokémon including the three legendary dogs which took a big portion of my life when I was younger. I did end up getting crystal and beating it quite easily but had a bit more to it then.

Following that I got leaf green & fire red but I started with leaf green and it was a big surprise/change compared to the other ones because I played them on the good old game boy colour and then I got a clear looking game boy advanced and was so awesome and these graphics looks amazing the game play and story was amazing and the was just amazing! It was the same as the Indigo League but had more things there and more to do. The story line with regeice, and the others was spectacular along with the 7 islands. Getting all of those pokémon did not happen for me. I eventually got them all but on another game first before on this one.

Next, I got ruby, and sapphire and the newer pokémon was a real neat touch. I started with a torchic but like many I feel right for mudkip after beating it the first time. I really liked it and the story line on this one was unique because it wasn't team rocket but was really awesome and I like team aqua v.s magma! It was just an amazing game that I played a lot and I think this game was out when I was in grade two so mabye I'm getting fire red/green leaf in the wrong order because it's been a long time since I've gotten right down to studying it. Anyways it was really fun and I liked the beginning of the caves/hide outs you could make.

After that came Diamond, Pearl and Platinum. I started with Diamond well my brother started with Pearl so it was really cool near the ending of the game for us. I chose piplup so it was a change for the first time with a water type instead of a fire type. I remember all the people and who we had to fight etc.. and the story line which was down right amazing. I did end of trading my empoleon to my brothers account well I made a new game with chimchar and then traded the empolean back just for support. Then after getting Arceus and the other two from Diamond and Pearl once I bought it. I did get Arceus on the Platinum when I bought it first though on the event that you have to do over wifi. Finally the caves and tunnel digging was so fun making bases and such with friends and I traded everyone onto the account and caught them all and got Darkrai, Manaphy, Heatran, and Shaymin from doing the event with professor Oak.

Before I get to the next and last generation of pokémon I was with the mystery dungeons and I've gotten extremely far on about 3 different ones and I also played a game on my wii and got far on it as well. Those are just side pokémon games I played.

Finally Black & White. I've seen episodes, played a little bit at the beginning but I haven't played the full thing so I don't have that great of an input of it but I hear it has an amazing story line and I've seen the graphics and new pokémon and it looks spectacular!

If I had to choose one that I enjoyed the most throughout my 13 years of playing it since I was about three years old then the game would have to be.

-Drum roll please- DUM DUM DUM DUM!

Diamond, Pearl and Platinum!

Why do you wish to join this group? I want to join this group because I'm involved with two other pokémon forums still learning things that I don't know, helping others to learn pokémon and because I'm an overall pokémon fanatic that wish's to become a part of this group.

Dragon, for some reason I love them so much, I also really like their strong moves and how they look.

As for my least favorite, it has to be poison or bug type for SURE.

What is your favorite Pokémon and why?

MissingNo.

MissingNo. beat Red as soon as the battle started.

MissingNo. gives Darkrai nightmares.

MissingNo. has four other forms because it is so strong.

I can go on forever...

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why

POKEMON RED <3

Best childhood nostalgia ever. I was addicted as soon as I bought it. Every day I'd get so happy when school is over so I can play it on my Gameboy Color and trade with other friends. I was one of the few who told others about the MissingNo glitch for money lol.

Why do you wish to join this group?

Anyone who loves Pokemon is a friend of mine. I also wish to share my joy with others. Also I'll make tutorials on Pokemon Glitches like getting into Glitch city or catching other glitch Pokemon and stuff every week if we have our own forum. I'll also try to donate as much as I can, I really want this group to become known Soulmate.

Yeah but that was the easy part, when I first got Red for the Gameboy, everyone was playing Crystal because it just came out, but I liked Red more. I spent a lot of time strategizing what I would do with my Pokémon, and what I usually did was catch an Abra above nugget bridge, keep it in my party, and when I could go to vermillion city, I would leave it in the Daycare. I would proceed to do the main quest normally, then when I got to Vermillion City, I would go to the Pokémon Fan Club and get the Bike Voucher, on my way to redeem the bike, I would check up on Abra and it would be around level 13 or so, and I would redeem the bike and wait until I got to Celadon. After finishing everything there, I would go to Mr. Psychic's House, and pick up TM29 Psychic, then go get fly from the lady hiding out behind the cycling road, and find a pidgey from the patch of grass next to saffron (40% chance of finding one), catch it, and fly to Cerulean and get my Abra back, which is usually level 35 or so, and all my other Pokemon were in the 42s, I would train it a bit until it evolved into Kadabra, and then try to trade it to one of my friends after fighting all the trainers in the gym dojo, which would level me about 3 times, and then fight Sabrina and all of her minions, and I would have a level 42-45 Kadabra.

(May 27, 2012 07:58 AM) Soulmate Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Yeah but that was the easy part, when I first got Red for the Gameboy, everyone was playing Crystal because it just came out, but I liked Red more. I spent a lot of time strategizing what I would do with my Pokémon, and what I usually did was catch an Abra above nugget bridge, keep it in my party, and when I could go to vermillion city, I would leave it in the Daycare. I would proceed to do the main quest normally, then when I got to Vermillion City, I would go to the Pokémon Fan Club and get the Bike Voucher, on my way to redeem the bike, I would check up on Abra and it would be around level 13 or so, and I would redeem the bike and wait until I got to Celadon. After finishing everything there, I would go to Mr. Psychic's House, and pick up TM29 Psychic, then go get fly from the lady hiding out behind the cycling road, and find a pidgey from the patch of grass next to saffron (40% chance of finding one), catch it, and fly to Cerulean and get my Abra back, which is usually level 35 or so, and all my other Pokemon were in the 42s, I would train it a bit until it evolved into Kadabra, and then try to trade it to one of my friends after fighting all the trainers in the gym dojo, which would level me about 3 times, and then fight Sabrina and all of her minions, and I would have a level 42-45 Kadabra. Don't meet the reqs yet, but I never used the day care center seriously other than on my 3rd play through of Platinum where I was using AR and skipped a gym battle where I would have seen Azurill which was the final Pokemon of my pokedex ?

Lol yeah that was a bitch to find I always had to evolve Marill, and feel free to apply now since you seem to have some knowledge about Pokémon, and while you're doing that, I'll add everyone accepted to the list.

What is your favorite type and why? I have no idea. Maybe bug because bug pokemon are underrated. (Durant is so pro).

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? Too many to choose from :(Maybe Mew because first generation and it's so versatile and shiny Mew is cute :]

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why. Either Sapphire or Blue. Started with Blue, but I only really knew what I was doing at the end of Silver, so I invested the most time in Sapphire. My brother then proceeded to leave the game and my GBA on a bus from the airplane to the airport on a return flight from India -.-

Why do you wish to join this group? While I don't play as much Pokemon now as I've overplayed it, I spend too much time on Pokemon Online (the battle simulator) so I still love Pokemon so if there is a group about Pokemon and I can join it, I'm in lol.

Pokésav? If you alter a Pokemon's type the game fucks up bad.

Yes, but if you alter a pokemon's moves to psychic moves, it will seem as if it is psychic (if that makes any sense).

Not really, a lot of Non-Psychic type Pokemon can learn psychic type moves. For example, both Haunter and Tauros can learn a lot of Psychic type moves via TM and leveling up.

I know nothing about hosting and I have to use my iPad for like another month so it would be very hard to get it set up for me, and I don't think it's needed exactly for it to be a "proper" group.

Thanks for letting me into the group.

I bought platinum when it first came out and it just didn't appeal much to me. The pokemon are getting worse every generation to the point where it's just taking the fun away from me. Sadly, same problem with the show. It doesn't have that friendship, adventure, and sad moments (for example when Ash let butterfree go to mate with the other butterfree) with a good amount of action in the mix. Now it's just running around battling basically.

Honestly this is a tough one, I'd have to go with Dragon as its a great and high powered type. It's most weakness is itself! (and a little bit of ice)..

What is your favorite Pokémon and why?

I love my Charmanders - mostly because it evolves into Charizard and I live it's unique shiny form. It's also not an ugly mother fucker.

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why

I'm not going to be a hipster and say the original trio. Although you can't beat the originals, I'd have to go with Pokemon Sapphire. That was a beastly game and I'll always treasure it along with Team Aqua!

What is your favorite type and why? Fire. I feel that fire does the most damage overall. I do like water pokemons better though.

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? I have a lot of favorites. Munchlax is my favorite though.

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why? Sapphire. I played it SOO much. I used to be better than all the other kids in teh town.

Why do you wish to join this group?

I remember going to the Pokemon Center each week to get one of these with my brother and dad.

Soulmate - June 30, 2012, 7:23 am

What is your favorite type and why? Ghost because of it's immunities to normal and fighting moves. Also, the ghost type roster is made up of pretty dope Pokemon.

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? Gengar. It's a fucking boss just saying.

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why Pokemon Gold version. It was the first Pokemon game I had growing up and it's what got me into the series. My second would be Ruby simply because of the huge revamp and additions to the Pokemon gameplay.

Why do you wish to join this group? Because I'm a straight up badass, why else?

Soulmate - July 9, 2012, 10:26 pm

You have been accepted, welcome to the group.

What is your favorite type and why? Water and Flying. Water because they always look really cool in 1st Gen and they have a lot of strong moves they can learn, i also like the use of the water element like blasting water out of your mouth and stuff. :3 Haha. And Fire Because it's pretty cool to be a big bad ass that can shoot fire at people whenever. It's a very good Element like water, but i like water more :)

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? It would have to be between Mew and Squirtle. Mew because it was the first pokemon i ever new and its cute. ;) And Squirtle because the innocent little turtle can turn into the beastly Blastoise. Squirtle was also one of the first and its looks really cool !

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why Sapphire , it's my favorite because my favorite Legendary Pokemon besides Mew is Kyogre. Also because it introduces some cool new pokemon.

Why do you wish to join this group? Well i'm a huge pokemon fan and this group is about my favorite pokemon :) so i would love to join this group. I see many Pokemon Lovers Just like me and i would love to be apart of this group and talk to other Pokemon Fans . :)

What is your favorite type and why? Dragon and Dark, because only dragon is effective against dragon and dark pokemon, because they look damn awesome. (but I love all types of pokemon)

What is your favorite Pokémon and why? Zoroak, is very strong, looks damn good and awesome.

What is your favorite Pokémon game and why Sapphire and white, Sapphire because I had the best time with it and traded the most pokemon with it and made a lot of fun. White because I love the 3D experience, and the new pokemon, but some pokemon could be made better.

Why do you wish to join this group? I've played pokemon a lot! And I stopped playing pokemon white a while ago but I'm getting in again and I can't wait till I can play the english version of pokemon black 2 ?

PS: I would love to join the skype chat, my username is armenianhacker
