? Name: Rosario

? Age: 17

? Country & State: US - Michigan

? Favorite Anime(s):

Rosario + Vampire, One Piece, Gundam Wing, Soul Eater, and Trigun.

? Favorite Manga(s):

Dragonball Z, Pokemon.

? Favorite Anime Movie(s):

InuYashu, all of the InuYashu movies. Naruto as well.

? How can you help/contribute to animeFAN!?:

When I buy my new computer, I will start holding contests to benefit AA, as well as start monetizing manipulating, to get enough money to donate to AnimeFAN so we can become an official group, (If that's ok with the leaders).

? A little bit about yourself:

To be honest, I just started watching Anime about a year and a half ago, (regulatory basis), so I'm fairly new. But, within that year and a half, I've watched more anime than I have done anything else. The only thing keeping me from even more anime is school, which I'm almost done with in 13 more days. Besides all that, I love discussing anime shows with others, and just sharing that passion and feeling that I know others have.

Kunis - May 13, 2012, 10:36 am

Woww..

This is actually a nice thread design.

Nice!

? A little bit about yourself: I've been a general anime fan for about a year now if memory serves me correctly (not including my Toonami days when I was younger). I started off with Lucky Star after seeing the cheer leading dance on Youtube. After that I got into Touhou and the unofficial Anime that went along with it. Then I went into Elfen lied, and a few more anime. Outside of anime, I am also a decent e-whore and gamer.

? How can you help/contribute to animeFAN!?: Well... Honestly... If you have ANY questions about the Japanese cultural or language, or how it is like in Japan, or ANYTHING of the sort, I can answer it 100% honestly and more than less correctly... I've also watched a million Anime series.. soo.. yeah. Just ask something.
? A little bit about yourself: Well... I lived in Japan a few years ago for 3 years straight. I love the Japanese cultural and I think the American cultural can fuck off compared to it. (Hehe ;3 I'm American) I am fluent is speaking / understanding Japanese... Kanji.. not so much. xD I love kitties. I think my cat is a guardian sent from the magical Hidden World to protect me and sleep with meh and cuddle with me... oh and to warn me of danger. I have a few mementos of Japan if you wanna see them, just ask meh. I prefer to only watch 6, 12 and 26 Episode Animes only for the reason it takes to long to watch 50, and honestly the quality of the Anime worsens above 26 episodes. (In my personal studies). Ummm.. I love cats.. their soft. I often think that were are soo many secrets and hidden things in the world that people dont see, but some very lucky people have the ability to sense it....

? How can you help/contribute to animeFAN!?: Well if I had the chance to join I'll post about new manga and anime I read and watch. I'll post websites where you can stream anime in great quality, and free as well. I'll also be very active and help others with finding new manga to read, and any other issues that they want help to solve.

? A little bit about yourself: Well, I mostly read manga. I've been doing that since I was around 8. Sometimes I watch anime but manga doesn't have any fillers which makes it my choice. The first manga I read was Beet: The Vandel Buster, unfortunately it was canceled before it was completed. However this is what inspired me to read anime in the first place. After this I wandered onto different manga such as Naruto, Dragonballz and much more. Soon after I started reading more manga, even some that were not very popular. That also led me to anime, but still manga are the favorable choice to me. This is my manga/anime history, hope I get accepted.

When you say have more mosts or post more actively, what exactly are you looking for with this? In the main thread it is just be active, but I have been more active recently but don't know what constitutes for "more actively posting". Just a little reference would be nice so everyone that applies knows :)

Read the OP

As for the exact number, it changes from time to time, I would give >50 as a rough figure, also recent posts are taken into consideration, how often you post.

Aim for something around 50 overall posts within AA; then recent activity too. So 4 or 5 recent posts in the last 48 hours.

UPDATE I know it's been on the top of the main OP for awhile, but I'm currently hunting for someone to make a new thread design for the OP. :3 I'm searching and trying! Taiga's originally design is wicked and I'd love to keep it, but unfortunately, the information is outdated and I don't have the PSD!

COMPETITIONS will be coming soon for animeFAN's! only. You get to pick your prizes (within a certain price range) and prizes will be on offer for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place! So join animeFAN now for a chance at some awesome prizes!

Both work. Although yours is structured better, "no negative rep overall" would still mean overall was an adverb.

Also: LOL ANONYMOUS.

"no negative rep overall" means you can have negative rep as long as the rep you have is in the positive field. You were correct. ?

? Favorite Manga(s):Death Note. Absolutely Fantastic

? Why do YOU want to join?: I want to join due to the fact that I want to be a part of a nice anime-related group on Hack Forums. Anime has really changed me. I used to be without friends, and I was unhappy. After breaking up with my Ex-Girlfriend, I sat with a group at lunch. I was invited to one of their houses, and we watched Highschool of the Dead in one night. After this, our friendship really developed, and now I am really happy, with many friends, hobbies (childish card games :D) and anime was one of the main turning points. I always try to find a good anime to watch, to relax me, as well as sometimes(rarely) make me think. Mostly, its about the girls and action(did I mention I enjoy Freezing?). In all honesty, anime is a very nice way to relax, leave this world for those few hours, and just get absorbed into a world, with character emotions, love, hate, violence, and more.

? What can you contribute as an 'animeFAN!?: I will contribute to animeFAN in multiple ways, most notably my helpfulness, and knowledge in other subject matter, not just anime. I am a very well-rounded person, with knowledge in computers, programming,gaming,anime,sports,math,physics. In terms of pure anime contributions, I wish to do some reviews for some less known animes, such as Samurai Girls, Aestica of the Rouge Here, Mirai Nikki, Vandred, as I have not seen any reviews on HackForums.I really wish to help out everyone in the HackForum community, not just with anime/manga, but also general people skills, like listening to someone when they need help, and offering advice.

Thanks for reading my application :D

It's okay lol , i need to post more in the anime adventures section .-.

Weary - August 3, 2013, 12:20 am

I've just recently got into anime, so I haven't got 50 posts in the section yet. But I plan on reaching that soon enough! It's a real shame the site's closed for the time being, I was very excited to register. Is there any progression being made in the regard of an unlocking of the bulletin board?

Maybe, this group was huge back in the day but times have changed and so has AA. People don't care about this sort of thing anymore unless it's official and I'm 19 and don't have 10k to waste on a userbar.

Well if you did I'd be questioning the legitimacy of your income sources ?. AA has changed quite a bit since I first posted there - a lot of people have left and a lot of new faces have turned up, but all in all it seems the section itself is dying.

K-On!, Stringendo, SAO series, Oreimo, Omamori Himari, Anohana, Umineko no Naku Koro ni, Angel Beats!, and Yugioh when I was younger, but I never actually put much effort into watching it as much as I did playing card games of it with my older brother. I think I remember watching some Pokemon when I was younger too, and oh! Beyblade was an anime that I watched when I was younger, and I played 'battles' or whatever with my older brother when I was younger. :3

? Favorite Manga(s):

The Light of Tsukimi Manor, Naruto (I prefer the manga over the anime x.x), Oreimo, there was a Kuroneko loli doujin but I can't remember the name of it. >.>

? Why do YOU want to join?:

I'm not really sure that I know how to answer this and I'm not going to go and try to bring up some generic answer. ? What can you contribute as an 'animeFAN!?:'

I like to think that I'm a good writer, I can do GFX, I have experience with forum administration, I can program, I can compose song mixes, I can shill/advertise/get the group more popular if needed, I'm currently learning Japanese + Hiragana too, so I'd be glad to help others out with learning the language too whilst I learn, and I'll move on to katakana then kanji eventually. I can draw very small-scale things, but not people, oh no, I'm terrible at drawing any living thing.

So is the group still open or not? Well either way I spent an hour on this Application at night so I probably didn't read the other posts properly. Either-way enjoy! I just felt like doing something and I had time on my hands so.. :P

? Name: Ryner

? Age: 16

? Favorite Anime(s): I can't decide which Anime is really my favourite but I'll just pick out a few I really like and enjoy watching.. Although there are many other exceptionally great Animes as well!

Fullmetal Alchemist BrotherhoodSpoiler \(Click to View\)

Fullmetal Alchemist Brotherhood is by far one of the best Animes out there in my opinion. The story in the Anime is also very interesting. The theory of "equivalent exchange" was one of the big parts in FMA Brotherhood for me and was one of the very big parts which made me grow more and more in love with this Anime. I've seen FMA as well but FMA Brotherhood had a better and more fulfilling ending in my opinion.

Densetsu no Yuusha no DensetsuSpoiler \(Click to View\)

I really can't explain why I think this Anime is good. I just like it, it's all personal preference. The main character "Ryner Lute" is a lazy bum who spends most of his precious time sleeping. Later on in the Anime you'll find out that he's actually a pretty damn good magician with a certain special power. Always pretending to be uninterested and trying to hide his exceptional ability to losing intentionally so he can get to sleep more, it's very interesting and the Anime has more to it than just collecting Relics!

Hunter x Hunter \(2011\)Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Hunter x Hunter is by far one of the greatest Animes. Right now it's my favourite as I'm still keeping myself updated on every episode that comes out once a week, Episode 131 was also surprisingly good although I've read the Manga I was mindblown.

? Favorite Manga(s): I'll list some Mangas I enjoyed reading although I don't consider them my favourite. I don't think I'd be capable of trying to find or remember the Manga that I enjoyed the most so I'll just list these as they popped right up in my head when I thought about good Manga/Manhwa.

Soul CartelSpoiler \(Click to View\)

[img]http://www.eyeonmanga.com/wp-content/manga/cover/tbn/soul-cartel_200x0.jpg[/img]

Soul Cartel is a korean web comic about an exorcist that makes a contract with an Archdevil and then he proceeds to go and visit Hell. Yeah, it's really good and I've been watching every chapter that came out since the 54th chapter! It was getting a little poor in the middle of the story but then it suddenly caught fire and I got hooked to it again, I really like Mangas/Animes where the MC shows a hidden power/mysterious endurance and/or strength when needed. The Web-comic is great and yeah I'm writing this Anime Fan Application 4 at night so I might be a little weird here and there, I'm trying my best though.

HolylandSpoiler (Click to View)

The MC is a kid who doesn't feel like he fits anywhere. So that he could find a place he'd belong to and be accepted.. He'd do anything! One thing leads to another and he ends up being forced to fight to keep his place in his "Holyland". This was what lead me to reading onto this Manga, it's really good! I mean like REALLY GOOD. This was actually one of the Mangas that motivated me to start working out a little more, I quit after half a year but the fact that one Manga lead towards training for half a year is priceless. It really just inspired me very much and I've re-read it around 3 times so far, I really like this Manga.

? Why do YOU want to join?: I'll just straight-up tell you that I want to join this because I am very interested in Anime and Manga and I also thoroughly enjoy discussions concerning Anime and such as well!

? What can you contribute as an 'animeFAN!?: I can write reviews, not necessarily decent but probably not the worst you've seen either. Well I'm active in the AA section and I like Anime I don't know what I'd be able to contribute except for that though! ;)

Favorite Anime(s): My favourite anime is currently Spice and wolf, I do though, honestly, have a lot of trouble picking which one I like the most, there are many on my list, such as; ToraDora, Steins;Gate, Code Geass, Mayo Chiki! and so on, basically, I will though say, that of the all, Spice and Wolf simply hits the top, due to the character development and story development.

Favorite Manga(s): Hm, this is a tough one, I really enjoyed the "kid goku" part of dragonball to be honest, the whole dragonball manga was excellent, but also, Bakuman came up, though, for the sheer nostalgia, I will pick Dragonball in this case ^^

Why do YOU want to join?: I wish to join, not because of much, but simply because I love anime and manga for that matter, and I remember the old AF. Basically, I wish to join to help out in the AA section, and also just to have a good time :3

What can you contribute as an 'animeFAN!?:' Pretty much anything, first of all, I can help out with any kind of graphic you might need, but that is not the purpose, I will help contributing towards contests, and generally help with suggestions and keeping the section somewhat active in times of need, also, I bring a good mood :3

- Naruto Shippuden
- Code Geass
- Attack on Titan
- Blue Exorcist
- Death Note
- Steins;Gate
- Fairy Tail
- Sword Art Online
- Fullmetal Alchemist

- Fullmetal Alchemist: Brotherhood

I'm very much into action and adventure anime where the protagonist faces a powerful enemy and has to overcome them through training and dedication, I'm personally not fascinated by romance, however I can watch them without getting bored.

Favorite Manga(s):

- Naruto Shippuden
- Attack on Titan

Why do YOU want to join?: I've always been getting into anime, and saw this group. Figured it would be one of the best places to find friendly people to discuss anime with. I'm personally a fan of BOTH Sub, and Dub. I'm not one of those subbed elitists, or dubbed elitists... and for anime I like I normally watch it twice... once in dub and once in sub. To compare and give feedback to better improve both of them. <3

What can you contribute as an 'animeFAN!?: I can mainly contribute discussions and my friendliness, I've found over the years a few awesome anime viewer sites for both dubbed and subbed and am willing to help users out there too... I'm also planning on releasing my own streaming site one of these days (not soon)... and would love to have it for AA users.

I mean nothing against you, nor am I trying to start shit, or claim that I have the authority to decide... however from your posts you shouldn't be accepted. At least for now, most of the AA threads and posts I've seen from you have been you trolling and insulting anime.

In your reputation I link to a thread in which you call anime viewers children who need to get "a gf". You seem like you enjoy anime more for the jokes and trolling. Not only that, but you provided an application that looks like you didn't even put any effort into it, which doesn't stride well.

Of course this decision is Happeh's alone, I'm merely giving my 2 cents. <3

Ryner - July 26, 2014, 6:34 pm

This is a repost of my older Application! :) I spent quite a lot of time making this back then and I am proud it fully proves to be of some use!

Name: Ryner

Age: 16

Favorite Anime(s): I can't decide which Anime is really my favourite but I'll just pick out a few I really like and enjoy watching.. Although there are many other exceptionally great Animes as well!

Fullmetal Alchemist BrotherhoodSpoiler (Click to View)

Fullmetal Alchemist Brotherhood is by far one of the best Animes out there in my opinion. The story in the Anime is also very interesting. The theory of "equivalent exchange" was one of the big parts in FMA Brotherhood for me and was one of the very big parts which made me grow more and more in love with this Anime. I've seen FMA as well but FMA Brotherhood had a better and more fulfilling ending in my opinion.

Densetsu no Yuusha no DensetsuSpoiler (Click to View)

I really can't explain why I think this Anime is good. I just like it, it's all personal preference. The main character "Ryner Lute" is a lazy bum who spends most of his precious time sleeping. Later on in the Anime you'll find out that he's actually a pretty damn good magician with a certain special power. Always pretending to be uninterested and trying to hide his exceptional ability to losing intentionally so he can get to sleep more, it's very interesting and the Anime has more to it than just collecting Relics!

Hunter x Hunter \(2011\)Spoiler (Click to View)

Hunter x Hunter is by far one of the greatest Animes. Right now it's my favourite as I'm still keeping myself updated on every episode that comes out once a week, Episode 131 was also surprisingly good although I've read the Manga I was mindblown.

Favorite Manga(s): I'll list some Mangas I enjoyed reading although I don't consider them my favourite. I don't think I'd be capable of trying to find or remember the Manga that I enjoyed the most so I'll just list these as they popped right up in my head when I thought about good Manga/Manhwa.

Soul CartelSpoiler (Click to View)

[img]http://www.eyeonmanga.com/wp-content/manga/cover/tbn/soul-cartel_200x0.jpg[/img]

Soul Cartel is a korean web comic about an exorcist that makes a contract with an Archdevil and then he proceeds to go and visit Hell. Yeah, it's really good and I've been watching every chapter that came out since the 54th chapter! It was getting a little poor in the middle of the story but then it suddenly caught fire and I got hooked to it again, I really like Mangas/Animes where the MC shows a hidden power/mysterious endurance and/or strength when needed. The Web-comic is great and yeah I'm writing this Anime Fan Application 4 at night so I might be a little weird here and there, I'm trying my best though.

HolylandSpoiler (Click to View)

The MC is a kid who doesn't feel like he fits anywhere. So that he could find a place he'd belong to and be accepted.. He'd do anything! One thing leads to another and he ends up being forced to fight to keep his place in his "Holyland". This was what lead me to reading onto this Manga, it's really good! I mean like REALLY GOOD. This was actually one of the Mangas that motivated me to start working out a little more, I quit after half a year but the fact that one Manga lead towards training for half a year is priceless. It really just inspired me very much and I've re-read it around 3 times so far, I really like this Manga.
