about that?

Well I really don't see the point of creating deface pages and not using them yourself. It would be smart to sell them. Kids here will buy them.

These deface pages are, in my opinion; scruffy. I'm hoping to get back into defacing and using more clean and original defaces.

Perhaps you are trying to motivate the Defacer kids ? If you think it is your good then just continue.

@Nick,

Good Advice!!!
