Thread: Guess the anime! \(part 3\)

•Lawliet• - May 22, 2012, 1:47 pm

Its been like a year and half since part 2! Shall we do this again?

How to:A member posts a picture of an anime, and another one will guess which anime it is. If he/she is saying the correct answer, he/she may post a new picture and so on.

You may wait for the past user to confirm whether you're right or not before proceeding to post your picture.

Recommendations:You may use spoilers to keep the thread clean.

Use your own images to make it harder to guess.

So let's start this again with an easy one =]

Okay, I figured it was a wait till it's confirmed or not system, and then you post a picture.

Sort of a tough one possibly.

Oh ok, I thought you were sure about your answer =)

That surely is a tough one, hmmm Kekkaishi? most certainly not..

Marshmellow - May 23, 2012, 2:02 am

I think this would work a lot better if people guessed, and if they got it right, it's their turn. The one who posted it would need to confirm it within a certain time, or something like that.

Lawliet - May 23, 2012, 4:42 pm

If you're unsure about your answer then yeah, wait for confirmation, but IMO if you're 100% sure about your answer, and google just proves you right, I don't see the why to stop.

But do as you please =P

Incest - May 23, 2012, 5:41 pm

I like the principle behind "If you're unsure about your answer then yeah, wait for confirmation, but IMO if you're 100% sure about your answer, and google just proves you right, I don't see the why to stop.", but I don't think it would really work out exactly.

Say someone thinks they are right, posts a picture and then everyone goes off onto their picture. Even though they were actually wrong to begin with. Not the biggest deal in the world, but I think a wait for a response system will work better and cause less drama.

Kekkaishi is not right btw.
