Thread: [\[HELP\] E-whored a guy, now I don't know what to do](#)

Borran - May 23, 2012, 6:05 pm

So I've e-whored a guy, who is from Switzerland, who is a film producer, who earns a lot of money.

Im like,

-Do these guys really look up girls on internet and pay them?

I made my "thing", used a vid and he paid $20 for a strip.

I told him I need money for an apartment and that shit you know so he paid me off before even seeing me in cam (to prove im real).

After the strip is done, he continues chatting, he never even touched his little jerry.

He tells me he NEVER had a girlfriend and he is 44 years old. So now to my question, you think I shouldnt care about him and pretend to be interested and get more money out of him?

Or just get a little more then block & leave him?

Take advantage of that, you could gain some decent profit.

It's a lot easier if your target is a paedophile. But if this guy has a lot of money then I wouldn't feel too bad taking some of it off him if its entertaining him anyway.

tell him that you want to go see him, but he has to pay for your plane tickets $$$

If you can make more money off him do it. Who gives a fuck dude. He has money to blow and he ain't wasting it on no chick so you might as well get him to send you some more.

I have a guy who pays for a cam show every night and wants to fly me to Germany to see him this summer. Have no sympathy my man. Take advantage, be happy you found someone that isn't getting pussy, is 44 and making that much cash.

He want me to go and visit him in Switzerland, but he has contacts so he can get the tickets cheaper than they are.. but I would still get some more money.

This guy doesn't want shows anymore lol. He said "I will forget what I have seen tonight and we will make good friendship instead".

I told him im $30 away from able to pay the bill and he payed right off.

So any suggestions to make more money out of him? I have only e-whored for camshows and then they don't want anymore and I can't show them more or they will recognize it's a video. How do you deal with that guy wanting shows every night, is he retarded and don't see its a video?

If they want more shows just make excuses, say your webcam is broke, you can't buy one as you can't even afford to pay your bills, try get more money that way, or offer to upload some pictures for him for money.

Ask him if he would like to be in a long distant relation ship with you, and just try to get some money out of him, like for holidays and your "birthday".

I say try to get as much money as possible and then do a clean get away.

Thats the prob, he wants me to go visit him in switzerland. Should I just say like I didn't get any holiday I need to work or something?

If I get him to fall for it the idea with holidays and birthday is great, thanks.

Try saying you can't at the moment because of work, and that you'd love to text him and stuff but you don't have a phone, try get him to buy you an iphone or something.

Then in a few days bring up something else that you need. Try do it casually as well though.
