Thread: [\[Hf Webmasters\] Skype Group | Discuss web programming, forums development & more!](#)

Reseller - May 28, 2012, 6:34 am

Welcome to the HF Webmasters recruitment thread! You obviously clicked this because you would like to be a part of the HF Webmasters, now there is "Webmaster" forums; but who has time for one of those when you are trying to manage your own.

This skype group will be a large amount of members all helping one another out, working on web development projects and maybe even teaming up on one or two.

While we don't expect everyone in here to be a complete professional at web development or web design. We still do have standards!

RequirementsAtleast 50 posts on hackforums

Members for more then a week

Must of general knowledge of web development

If you would like to apply to HF Webmasters then please fill out this application.
