That would be pretty easy. It will take like 30 days to start making $20 bucks per day.

- 1) Around $10,000 - $30,000.
- 2) Search on Google, think with your head what's worth completing survey.
- 3) No I couldn't help you finding niche.
- 4) No it's not hard to work with FileIce, it's pretty easy.
- 5) Depends how much you work per day. I work 4 hours per day and I succeed after 60 days.

Yes I'll leave FileIce for sure. But I'm almost 5000% sure that there won't be better PPD for now. Why? FileIce is pulling best offers from best CPA networks.

Is f/i//e/f//a/r/e/ a good starter site?

Yes FFlare is good site to start and yeah the surveys are worth. I recommend you to upload YouTube videos and boost them and get some downloads. Target 12-18 y/o kids, they love to get free things.

Why won't you actually provide payment proof instead of just bragging about it, no offense. I partly agree with Hustler.

You won't lose anything by posting proof. You said it yourself, always provide proof for more profit.

I honestly don't think anyone can earn 20k a month. Dude, that's more than a regular dentist earns, even a doctor for crying out loud!

If there is absolutely nothing to lose, why won't you provide proof? Because claiming you earn more than the average american, through a PDD site, is just so incredibly unrealistic.

I obviously mean no offense, but you can't blame me for being skeptical.

I honestly don't think anyone can earn 20k a month. Dude, that's more than a regular dentist earns, even a doctor for crying out loud!

If there is absolutely nothing to lose, why won't you provide proof? Because claiming you earn more than the average american, through a PDD site, is just so incredibly unrealistic.

I obviously mean no offense, but you can't blame me for being skeptical.

Why would I provide you proof? And I never said that I make at least $10 per month with PPD. I'm working with CPA too.

Little proof is my File Ice earnings, I'm not gonna show you other earnings because I don't want people to know for which network I'm working. Reason? Private.

You are noone and I'm not gonna show you any proof. If you have any questions related to PPD/CPA you can ask here or you can gtfo.

I'm a beginner here and.. here's my questions:

Where should i start? On which network?

What's a CPA and how can i make money with it? Just selling ebooks/programs/services in marketing place or what? I don't understand it at all.

Where i should invest my (7$ on paypal) money and time?

Should i use blackhat methods?

I have readed some things and have some little idea about all this PPD world but anyway, to ask you i don't lose anything. Thanks in advance, i will be very grateful, so i will make a GFX to you help me and want of course! :)) My gfx thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2509554>

Uhm well you can invest your $7 in domain name?

CPA = Cost Per Action. You can make money by promoting offers. For example you promote Email Submit offer from iPad. They'll let you promote it only for US people. Once US visitor enter their email and click on submit you'll earn for example $1,50 :)

Yes Blackhat For the Win! ? I love BH!

Yes, there's a lot of forums mate. Just search on Google. First of all you need to be trusted member to get downloads. You need to have nice HQ post and offer them download via survey. Make sure your file is worth filling survey because you'll get negative feedback and you won't get any downloads.

HackForums.

1) Just the mediafire link.

2) It needs to look like password.txt and write "Dear visitor, to unlock my program you need to get password. The password can be only found on the link below."

3) password.txt.

I am pretty new to PPD or IM in general. I made 4$ in about 3weeks what is in my eyes not enough. I made several videos about 'fake hacks/generators', created blogs for it and provided a step by step guide to make it look legit. And also boosted the videos and added some fake comments. All in all I had 28 impressions and only 4downloads.

This leads me to another question. I use adf.ly to shorten my links and hide the adf.ly link with tinyurl. You think that might stop people from downloading/following the link?

At the moment I use Shitcash and think about to use the different Mirror layouts they offer because I thought that many wont trust sharecash anymore so I would use something like file.me and change the background so it doesnt look like shitcash.

Thats why I think about transferring to foolish, however you know my earnings from above so does it even make sense to apply? Also I dont own a website, what should be value for the application.

Please answer me and thanks in advance.

I have to hide my link on tiny.url and then again shorten it with bit.ly [WARNING: potentially infected], since shitcash has a nice popup on bit.ly [WARNING: potentially infected] that say the following link is suspicious.

As far as I understood the whole method, you should ask yourself wheter you take a survey or use webs #1 warez search engine google to search for a better and also free source.

- 3)Could you give me niche examples ? multiple examples not one.

Yeah it really depends on your traffic. Best traffic = US/UK/AU/CA for now. If you get clicks from US/UK/AU/CA you should have 10% conversation rate overall.

Another thing that you need to have to get downloads is pretty nice design, download button & virus scan.

Oh well, if you request at the first of the month they should arrive around 7th. (Sometimes delay like this month) so this month they'll arrive around 15th.

They had big problems with PayPal and RadarX was working hard to get it back and he did! :)

Uh well I dunno then. Maybe your niche is very bad and company report it all the time.

Curb Your Enthusiasm - June 13, 2012, 5:31 pm

Making YouTube videos and all of those kind of things have never worked for me, Bok1ca. I've made many eBooks to make money (that actually work) and they've been stolen by people like you (not saying you still eBooks). One of the people who have stolen my eBooks and used it towards their niche was -luke-, probably someone that you know. His niche involves taking eBooks from upgraded sections of sites and posting them on his site with his Filelce links.

Right now I use Filelce to keep leeches from saturating my methods. Making 50 cents a download doesn't matter to me in that case.

My questions to you:

Do you condone the behavior that -luke- shows?

Is using YouTube toward a niche dead?

I've found it's quite hard to get French people to download Filelce links considering it requires a phone. Have you figured out how to do this and have you shared it publicly? I've searched French forums and haven't had any luck. Same with MinuteWorkers or whatever that thing was.

You can't really do anything.

YouTube isn't dead. YouTube is #1 traffic source, if you know how to work with YouTube you can make shitloads. I know some people that make $500 per day from YouTube with PPD and I know some people that make $1k-$5k per day via Youtube with CPA.

French doesn't require phone I think, some of them do, some of them require internet provider or I dunno huh >.< It's hard to get those leads..

Mmkay. Thanks.

With YouTube, if I were to make a video on a method that's still working entitled "Get a $100+ Personal Check Easy!", how would you suggest I make a video on that? I mean... I can't exactly show them the method. I don't know how I'm supposed to make a video on that. Shall I show some pictures of checks I've received or what?

False advertising gets your downloads saturated after a couple of days, while being realistic keeps your niche unsaturated.

Can you put money on an unverified paypal and verify it when you want to buy something? Basically I haven't made money online since I was 10 and now I want to buy something that is 2300 and my friend who is 18 could use his credit card when I need to verify. I had 2 paypal accounts banned because they fixed the fake verify stuff.

Sorry I sound like a real skid but i'm not 18 and my parents hate me.

zrokwl - June 13, 2012, 6:27 pm

With fileice after you upload your video, song, game or whatever market direction youre going in depending where youre trying to get the downloads, do the people just download it like a normal link such as # if you wanted to watch a movie and they just get the file or do they have to do a survey or do they have to sign up to fileice first. Basicaly asking what work is involved by the downloader is there any delay that would deter them from downloading, or is it they click, it downloads, fileice registers you have one download and credits you, the downloader can now watch, listen to or play the downloaded file. Cheers in advance!

D3vildog - June 13, 2012, 6:54 pm

You just have to do a survey before they get the file so it has to be worth doing it and if you are chain surveying, then don't do a .txt file, put it in a .rar with some junk.

Hmm depends on country. For example if most clicks come from US then you'll earn like $80 per 1000 clicks / 10% conversion rate / $0.80 avg.

IF most of your traffic come from AU then with 1000 clicks you can get up to $800 per day because avg is $8 per download for AU and conv rate is %10++

Hey Bok1,

I'm in for PPD like a month now and made 1,5k$ overall total with an avg of 50$/day, I feel pretty comfortable by now. A few in-depth questions:

- What are your experiences on choosing Download Mirror or Widgets, what works best for your? You already told us that cracks/hacks works best with widgets. But what's about Gaming Download Niches, should I put a Widget or a Mirror with a Setup which is pw locked? I need some serious infos on that.

- Difference between a .blogspot.com domain and a TLD, how much would a TLD improve my cv rate?

- Can you suggest us a big tool for yt promotion which will allow us to automate commenting/liking beside vagex, I already purchased the expert package. But since the comments from vagex are not the best I am still looking for a better solution.

Thanks for your time.

Bok1ca - June 19, 2012, 7:13 pm

1) Widgets works perfectly for cracks/hacks/generators, links works perfectly for beta keys, codes, product keys or something like that to show them proof that it's .txt file.

2) Domain name will improve your conversation rate because it looks more professional.

Come at Filelce. :) Hmm per 100 clicks perfect would be 15 downloads = 15% conv rate.

Will prob stop me from getting into fileice because i have no blog or anything, it's a just a simple individual method with just one file required to be uploaded to file-ice

Yes of course, file[FrozenWater] brags 20%+ conversion rates, but just bare in mind they (the downloaders) will only persevere through a survey if the file is worth it.

Personally I have never completed an online survey in my life, because I have never come across something that I really want behind one.

Nothing to worry about bro! I can guarantee you 100% that your SSN will be at safe place. Filelce is registered company and must take your SSN, if you enter fake SSN then you'll have problems with the FBI.

I have read all the question and answers in your thread. It was very informative, although I have a few doubts of my own which no one here has asked about.

So I was planning to promote a few CPA offers on Youtube. Before promoting I would like to clear out a few of my doubts first:

1) For example lets consider a game video "Maxpayne 2 Game Trailer", If I download the video which is ranked in youtube and then reupload it to my account by putting my CPA offer in the description will youtube delete that video soon as they come to know that I copied someone else's video?

2) If youtube is going to delete that video which they think might be a copyright video, is there a way around it so that I can protect my videos from being taken down? Is it necessary to change the pixels and framerate of the copied video before uploading the video to fly under youtube's radar?

3) If my CPA network comes to know that I am promoting my offers by copying others video, will they ban my account?

4) Is it blackhat to promote my CPA offers by letting someone else put my offer under their video by making a deal with them? As long as the traffic is targeted and high quality will CPA networks have a problem with it?

I would really love if someone could answer my these questions, they have been bugging me for a long time and preventing me to start working and sit lazy!

@Bok1ca: If you don't mind, could you please answer to the questions that I have asked you earlier? I am really waiting to hear about it, so I can start promoting. I hope I'm not disturbing you. :)

(Jun 27, 2012 04:00 PM)shijil619 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Could you please answer my question. :)

I have read all the question and answers in your thread. It was very informative, although I have a few doubts of my own which no one here has asked about.

So I was planning to promote a few CPA offers on Youtube. Before promoting I would like to clear out a few of my doubts first:

1) For example lets consider a game video "Maxpayne 2 Game Trailer", If I download the video which is ranked in youtube and then reupload it to my account by putting my CPA offer in the description will youtube delete that video soon as they come to know that I copied someone else's video?

2) If youtube is going to delete that video which they think might be a copyright video, is there a way around it so that I can protect my videos from being taken down? Is it necessary to change the pixels and framerate of the copied video before uploading the video to fly under youtube's radar?

3) If my CPA network comes to know that I am promoting my offers by copying others video, will they ban my account?

4) Is it blackhat to promote my CPA offers by letting someone else put my offer under their video by making a deal with them? As long as the traffic is targeted and high quality will CPA networks have a problem with it?

I would really love if someone could answer my these questions, they have been bugging me for a long time and preventing me to start working and sit lazy!

- 1) Yes. If the owner of the original video report it, your video will get removed instantly.
- 2) Yes you can protect them only if you make your OWN video. It looks original, meet the YouTube TOS and you use Mediafire as download (password protected). They won't remove it.
- 3) No they won't ban your account. They don't really care, they just want targeted and big traffic. :D
- 4) I don't think it's blackhat.

shijil619 - June 29, 2012, 4:53 am

Thanks for answering my questions, Bok1ca! :) If you don't mind could you please answer these too. :)

1) What are the different sources a stuffs that you would recommend a newbie to use while making his videos? What tools and sources do you use?

2) To promote files on fileice, most of the times do you purchase paid domain and hosting or the free ones?

3) When you started out as a newbie, how much hours of work did you do each day in order to reach 100$ per day?

4) When you started creating youtube videos for the first time how much time did it take you to create one?

4) Which is the best site in these 3 to generate views - Vagex, Enhanceviews or u2b views?

5) While posting a mediafire link (Password Protected) in description of a youtube video, will it be good if I shorten it with bit.ly [WARNING: potentially infected] or the direct mediafire link?

6) When you started on PPD for the first time, did you have any money for investment? Like to buy views, pay other's to make a website for you etc?

7) Is it ok with fileice to promote porn on youtube and other video sites using that password method? Is password method on porn videos considered a BH technique?

8) I already have a fileice account and I am not one of your refferals, is there a way that you can ask Opc to make me your refferal so that you can help me earn more? My main academic sections at school are over, I am ready to work harder to make cash online now and I won't sit lazy I promise. :)

punkHD - November 26, 2012, 6:24 am

- 1) Do I get the same type of help as your paid program if I join your referral program?
- 2) Do you currently use gaming niches and YouTube to earn such a massive amount of money per month?
- 3) Do you earn with CPA besides Filelce/PPD?
- 4) Which kind of niche do you earn the most with: an uncommon niche or a saturated niche?
- 5) Are you a staff at Filelce LLC?

Prospect - November 26, 2012, 7:46 am

Hey, I've got a few questions as well. I'm no pro at this, but I manage to earn $50-150/month with not much work at all, but I'd like to increase those earnings a bit and automate the process a bit.

- 1) What is the best (or good) source to gain traffic to your niche website
- 2) Do you use generic offers (mixe ones) or do you setup websites related directly to an offer?
- 3) From your experience, what's the invest-return ration on Youtube, using, let's say, a saturated niche? (Like, how much can I expect to earn from investing $10-30 for views and comments and how much can I expect in return, from your experience ofc. I know it depends on a niche and video quality)
- 4) How much time do you spend on Internet monetization per day?

Thanks, looking forward to your answers :)

1) Make sure your video is real with proof, UNIQUE made by you. Make sure you don't place your site link in description. Place your site/ppd link in description after two weeks but place your MEDIAFIRE link.

2) In my opinion blogger is pretty good, ranks very fast on Search Engines and it's free + easy to optimize. If you have one site with a lot of niches then i recommend you using .com . :)

3) Hmm it's easy, purchase your views from YTNuke or ShareYouTubeVideos or just boost your videos with Vagex, Enhanceviews, U2beviews etc etc. For your blogs I can't really help you, I'm not good with SEO.

Really, I use the word free all of the time with adworkmedia. They don't say or do a thing. I got my first lead with them ever today, after link locking the new Kick Ass Torrents proxy site, because Kick Ass Torrents has been blocked by every internet provider in the UK. Not sure I'll get any more leads because everyone will figure out what the proxy url is soon enough.

Other than this, I just can't figure out what people would do a survey for, other than games or cheats which is saturated, and difficult for me to get into since I haven't gamed since I was like 16.

You have to find a problem and provide a solution, and people will do your surveys, but I can't seem to find a problem and a solution that I can provide without violating AWM Tos. Movies and TV shows are risky, and so is music, because that's copyright infringement.

Man, I suck at CPA Sighs LOL!

Hello Bok1ca!

I have 10 burning questions that I'd love to ask you and I'd like to thank you for providing this Q&A! ??

- 1) I read above that you have over 100+ domains. Please correct me if I'm wrong but do these domains all serve a particular niche?
- 2) How many files do you have per niche/domain, approximately?
- 3) Do you use one blog for all your niches/domains, or do you have separate blogs for each one, or do you divide them into groups i.e. gaming, hacking, e-books, etc. if you see what I mean?
- 4) Is offering cheats/cracks etc. a breach of copyright law? Can you advise me/us of anything to be careful of legally?
- 5) Do you ever create your own content, i.e. do you ever write your own programs to generate codes for games for instance, or do you collaborate all your files from online sources?
- 6) If AWM and FI are offering the same survey offer, can the person wanting to download your file just fill the survey out once but you get paid from both AWM and FI?
- 7) Is it worth shortening links to my YouTube videos from my blog with a site like SquareBux, AdFly, etc. then also shorten the links to my file downloads from my YouTube page. I understand that more money is the objective here, but would this maybe effect my conversion rates?
- 8) I read above that you no longer use YouTube, could you please explain why not and describe an alternative?
- 9) When you did use YouTube, did you have multiple accounts, i.e. one per niche, or just one overall account for all your videos?
- 10) And finally, if you still used YouTube, would you take advantage of the ability to monetize your videos on there with the ability to allow adverts before/beside your videos?

Reading above, I assume English isn't your first language and that you learned purely from the internet. Fair play mate because you write very well. I don't know any Macedonian!! lol

I look forward to your answers and thanks again for this Q&A!!

Well, I've like made $0.45.

I don't understand how people make $40 in 1 day when they just started out. Maybe it's cause I've 1 video on YouTube?

Uhm well you can invest your $7 in domain name?

CPA = Cost Per Action. You can make money by promoting offers. For example you promote Email Submit offer from iPad. They'll let you promote it only for US people. Once US visitor enter their email and click on submit you'll earn for example $1,50 :)

Yes Blackhat For the Win! ? I love BH!
Can you recommend a good CPA network?

T-rom - July 24, 2014, 3:43 pm

Could you give an example of a niche and its advertising market? It doesn't have to be one that works just a basic example

Don't know if Bok1ca is still active as this thread is old so I will answer these the best I can (Jul 22, 2014 06:07 PM)Extasy1337 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Why i always fail at making money, i have wasted so many hours online, but havent earned any cent....You've got to stay motivated, you aren't going to start CPA/PPD one day and wake up with profit the next. To get started it takes time, dedication and motivation. A lot of hard work has to be put in however once setup the work load is decreased. Once you start earning this will give you the power to build on it and increase them earnings.

Been out of the CPA business for a bit however I know CPALead, CPAGrip and AdWorkMedia are all good.

A niche can be anything. If you want it to be gaming it could be a hack for a game or free codes.

It could be non gaming such as grocery vouchers etc.

Examples I can think of are:

Free PSN Codes

{Insert Online Game} Tool

Free Vouchers for all shops in {Country}

I have been told to start with sharecash, is that good one to start with?

Is this method allowed for PPD?

1) Create Text File With random word

2) they download

3) they send me random word

4) I give them a mc account?

I earn like .7 thy get .1?
