Thread: [\[Free\] Girl Finder - unique PLR software for monetizing dating niche](#)

timmylang - May 31, 2012, 5:52 pm

Hello.

I am here to share my software "Girl Finder".

This is a software that allows guys to automatically 'flirt' / 'wink' at females on 3 dating sites. There are multiple ways to monetize this software.

I've included a private label tool (rebranding tool) that will let you embed your own affiliate links and rebrand the software with your website name etc.

The 3 sites that this software works with is Benaughty, Date.com and Mate1. These are the 3 most popular dating affiliate sites across multiple networks (that have unlimited "winking" that is) (you can also rotate offers between networks using a server side php rotating script)

Ways to monetize this software:

- Give Away as incentive behind Content Locker to unlock content
- Give Away on a Landing Page with Affiliate links Embedded.
- Give Away on a Dating Blog with Affiliate links Embedded
- Give Away on Squeeze Page as incentive to sign up to your Dating Email list
- Give away on any guy forum or upload to torrent... Then have links in the bot pointing back to your dating blog, squeeze page, your OWN guy forum... And maybe it'll go viral! So use it in reverse to actually generate FREE traffic if want to...

*I don't permit anyone to sell this product as a whole (with the rebranding tool to other internet marketers). The rebranding tool is for your personal use to change the Primary exe and give to horny guys. If you want to sell the main exe to horny guys, I don't care.

Out of all the above options, I suggest using it as an incentive behind content locker as the best way to monetize it. You can maybe post a hyped up video of the product, promising it to get them thousands of females. Once they unlock the software, you are already paid. Winking / flirting at girls (on these 3 sites anyway) is not going to be a way to genuinely get a lot of women, it's more like a gimmick.. So basically, I wouldn't suggest giving it away to a valued email dating list of subscribers who trust you.. After 3 days of winking and they still have blue balls, they may frown upon you. But you can experiment at your own risk!!

Please post in the thread if you would like me to PM the link. (direct link)

Would love to hear your thoughts after use.
