Right so you're capable of making $1000 a week and you're going to try sell a guide telling us how to do that for a measly $3?

Smells like bullshit.

If you could make $1000 a week you wouldn't be trying to make $3 by selling an ebook.

Eh, I wouldn't buy it. I could make a tut myself. I've made some good money e-whoring and I would give the tut out myself. If people sell tut's like these for 3$ that's just amazing and easy cash

Sick, if it's only three bucks ill buy let me know when it's out

I'd probably buy it just to buy it, but I personally still think that Groove's guide/eBook on how to do it is the best, and for $15, you really get more then it's worth, it got me started, even gave me the best start.

I dont care for helping people out, its easy cash, i mean i may raise the price but not above 10$
I GOT my money whats the point of keeping it to myself.

Because why sell it for $3 or sell it at all cos compared to $1000 a week its not even worth the effort.

And if you did have amazing methods making you this amount why would you tell people which would make the methods saturated?

Plus you didn't even post proof.
