I've started a WordPress Blog, for Android News, Tech News, & World News. Hoping to get a bit of traffic eventually, I will put in Amazon Products from the affiliate program, and hopefully make a few bucks. But, for now it's just news! Collaborated from trusted sources, and posted on my blog. It's simple, and clean. Yet professional. I haven't done much with it, but I'm getting it set-up still and working on it.

Interested in what everyone thinks, how I could improve it. I just started this last night, so bare in mind, not everything is up 100%.

Thank you,
Leeroy

If you looked you'd see this isn't a forum..

Thank you everyone for your replies. :)

I like the layout and feel to the site, but there are a few things that you should change.

First, you should move the top-bar to be at the bottom because it looks like there are two navigation menus side-by-side.

Second, you should fix the bottom of the site:

Also, good luck with your site/blog! :)

Updated it a bit. :) Fixed those few blemishes. ^_^ Thank you for your feedback.

Added a new page : Apps

Check it out, I'd love feedback on the idea!
