Thread: L3NG_MAN aka ?N0-R3M0RSE? scammer

Team Angeldust™ - February 3, 2010, 5:45 am

Well yesterday me and DaM!eN.exe was going to buy bots from L3NG_MAN, we paid him 30$ for bots. After we had paid he left and went offline on msn for DaM!eN.exe. So i tried adding him and that would not help. So i Pmed him here on HF and i saw he was online, i knew he got my PM and read it because he was looking at my profile aswell as "reading PM" when i was checking what he was doing. So after some Pms to him he changed name to N0-R3M0RSE. I Pmed him again telling him that a name change would not help, and he changed again to ?N0-R3M0RSE?. So hes obviously a scammer, i wanted to wait untill i was 100% sure he scammed us before posting this, but now im sure. Thats all, proofs will be posted here by DaM!eN.exe. since he was the one making the trade, i was also watching everything throu TV.

Cannot make a judgment without proof.

iDope -.- - February 3, 2010, 5:59 am i won't be able to post proofs at the moment, since I'm online from my cellphone, but i surely will post the proofs as soon as i get to my PC.!

This guy actually asked me to make the payment, then claim it back with a messagd of his choice, and then asked me to close the dispute!

I did so again, with his choice of message to put on paypal.!

And then that guy just went offline, i waited for him to cm back online, he even came online, but by that time i had to go offline since i have my exams from tomorrow.!

I asked him to add up angeldust and give the bots to him, and he agreed to it!

But he didn't even talk to angeldust, neither did he reply to my PMs!

I will be posting the paypal payment proofs soon...i will also post the screenshot of the dispute messages!

I will just search for the msn logs..just tell me where they get saved, and ill post them here!

lolz0r - February 3, 2010, 12:03 pm

DaM!eN.exe is really legit, vouch for him!

Tsgh Mike - February 3, 2010, 2:00 pm

I have read everything thank you.

Fukushima - February 3, 2010, 3:11 pm

Hello, first of all i did not scam you.

The link you provided to update the bots did not work, that is an error on your part not mine, we could have tried another link but you had to go offline.

To clear some things up, i actually changed my name because i was bored of my old one, and did not reply to your Pm's because you sent me about 50 and was very threatening.

IF you had simply asked nicely the first time i would have refunded you straight away the next time you was online.

I don't appreciate your threats to "make my life hell on hackforums" or your accusations of scamming, but what i am willing to do is refund your money if you agree to close this thread/edit my name out of it and remove the negative rep angeldust gave me. I'm sorry this trade did not go well, i treat all my customers with great care. But the way in which you handled this was lets say, not very mature.

Kind regards.

Can you post pictures of these "threats"

Sour Diesel - February 3, 2010, 4:16 pm

i just bought his DDoSeR 4.0 Portal Login and everything went smoothly.

I'm sure he's not a scammer maybe there was some misunderstanding during that transaction. But im pretty sure r3m0rse is no scammer, cause im sure he would have scammed me.

ok..lemme tell you why i opted to post a scammer report against him..!

I decided to buy his ddoser4.0, i did contact him regarding this issue!

He told me he didn't have a paypal, and hence i should pay lucidream or sm1 else whom he wanted to buy irc bot from directly on his behalf... I decided to wait since he was selling that ddoser cheap...i waited, but i needed to ddoser immediately!

I asked him he could do it right away, else i didn't mind spending the 10 extra bucks and buying the original one from the site...he said go ahead...then i bought it from the site..as soon as i told him this, he said i knew you were a scammer and what shit!

I even posted our conversation on his thread, if admins could retrieve the post that i was requested to delete by this guy!

And then this fag ddoses me for over an hour!

Awesome...i had my oder computer and mycelphn, nd i could come online again!

And there is no question of my link not working!

I just bought 6k bots with that link, and 200 more from another guy!

I even asked you to do the stuff with angeldust, since i trust him more than anyone else here, and since i had to go offline for some unavaoidable reasons!

I asked you to contact him, you didn't, i pmed you, you still did not care to reply!

And for the threatening part, you scared the shit out of me by saying "just delete or edit your post from my thread, or you will regret!"

Aeesome..that was so nice of you..and you say, i threatened you??

Wow

Anyways, get me my bots, or get me my money!

And ill manage to get the name and the-rep out of here!

And ill manage to get the name and the-rep out of here!Dude i didnt even see your pms because your buddy spammed my inbox. And when i saw it i pmed you straight back offering you a refund, as for the ddoser i was selling I did not have a working paypal at that time but i realized u dont need a verified paypal to send/receive money. I did not ddos you for over an hour, thats complete lies i dont even have your IP? And i didnt deal with angeldust because it was not his paypal? I like to deal with the customer up front. Anything else? Im trying to contact you on msn now to give u a refund but it says your offline.

Tsgh Mike - February 3, 2010, 6:39 pm

Looks like a legit screenshot. You might want to add proof that that's actually his MSN (For extra proof).
