It's okay. Some people just can't F'in read so they don't read threw all the pages. I don't care if there was 69 pages in a thread. I Always check them all before posting.

I've read previous comments saying he is not taking requests right now.

But his thread says REQUEST NOW, unless it's not updated. If so, ignore my post.

I agree with you. I don't get why people go to a damn free based thread like everyone wants something free these days and ask for something when if htey would of clearly looked threw it all!!!. Like I was on a forum earlier had 149 pages. I read threw everyone of them to the last page and I saw it said We don't allow this. So then I didn't post what I did.
