i.Net xTreme Keylogger V.1

This is my first release, and hopefully i will get some positive feedback for this.

Please remember that this is a BETA release and it probably will contain glitches.

Screenshot;

This is the beta release so please ignore the GUI, and the FTP does not work, only Gmail.
Virus Scans; - Currently NVT is down, i will scan as soon as it is back up.

I said that the FTP doesn't work yet, this is only a beta release to see if ti actually logs the keys.

Did it work for you ?

Fix the GUI a bit up i like but its need some improvement and i dont think taht anyone is downloading it or posting feedback without a virusscan on it. Then i dont think you made this all with your own coding so post some credit maybe.

As mentioned above, i am not fixing the GUI yet because i am just testing if the concept works. I did code all myself with the help from soul collectors tut.

add credits then xDD and btw im willing to test as soon as NVT is up xDDD

Entrepreneur - February 6, 2010, 1:45 pm

Virus scans have now been added. Please don't forget to post back here with glitches or comments, thanks.

BroTard - February 6, 2010, 1:45 pm

What's wrong with the GUI? I like it.

Yes, overall the GUI is nice, but i have not completed adding the textboxes and buttons etc, i just released this to test the actual keylogger.

The GUI Looks pretty good and as for FTP, I really don't care. Gmail Is the option that works best for me.

Thanks for the share mate :)

The FTP support will be released with the next version, i just need some feedback as if this works etc.

Because i don't want to carry on coding the second version when the basics of it dont work.

Feedback anyone ?
