Thread: [\[TUTORIAL\] \[NO PM\] Free FACEBOOK LIKES \(NO AUTO LIKE\) \(NO BOT\) 300-500 a day.](#)

medanny - June 28, 2012, 10:09 am

Today while surfing the web , i found the best way to get free Facebook likes.

In the first few seconds i got 64 likes, on my medanny.com page.

Its really easy, and shouldn't take too long should be able to get 300-500 per day, just spending 30 minutes.

I repeat its not a bot, or an autolike.

TUTORIAL :)!

Spoiler (Click to View)

Its basically a site, where you sell and buy likes but not with real money, but with points, you get points for liking other peoples pages you get anywhere from 9-5 points, and you pay people to like your pages anywhere from 2-5 the trick here its to pay the least possible while getting pay the most, people are desperate for points so they will like your pages for 2 points no problem. Its a little bit slower but you have to spend less time on the site. Here is what I would recomend. You can get 100 points in just 1 minute and get 50 likes for those 100 points in 10-30 minutes you should have enough points to get 300-500 trough out the day.

1) get a alternative facebook, one thats not yours because you dont want to like 1000 pages with your main facebook, a lot of them are weird things, and you dont have to use your facebook to get the points.

Optional - You should also get a fake, gmail, and twitter, to follow and +1 they are very fast points to make when the likes don't pay more than 5 points.

2) sing up for the site, here is the link <http://addm.co/?VGJ8F27>

3) You will get 100 points just for singing up,

4) Click on Site/Page put your information there and see how you automatically get all the likes, don't loose patients, sell them at 2 points each, the more you paid the faster they like but its more work for you.

This also works, for YouTube, Twitter, Ect. but facebook its faster since you just click the like button.

Hope this helps you, don't forget to comment back on my tread and say what you think about this method.

I been using it for 35 minutes and here are my results.

That should be enough to get at least 300 likes by the end of the Day, if you pay less it takes a while, but hey you have all the time in the world, right.

if you want fast likes pay 9 and you will get them automatically :).

Please don't forget to comment and say Thanks if you like the Tutorial to keep this tread alive, i was at first asking for a Post to PM but its a lot harder since i have to PM one by one.

Once again hope this tutorial helps the Community.

Ori0n - June 28, 2012, 1:48 pm

Interesting stuff, my only concern would be FB "catching on" to totally unrealted likes to your page.. Anyone found that yet?

Or your "liking" account getting banned for too much activity and loosing all your points?

The page with the likes, is safe, the page is getting normal like from user actually clicking a like button..

And the account that you like with, is not even connected to the account where you have the points if it gets ban just make a new facebook account and keep liking its no different on the addmefast account.

Sites like these, they come and they go offline.

Slow method, also depends on the number of members registered with the site.

I had signed up with such sites, two or three of them and got banned too (LOL).

Hi guys, well I would like to know if the likes will come off after a while and if the accounts which are going to like my page all really know that they gonna like my page or is it just like a random pick ? Because I really don't want to pay my time and then notice that after some days I just have 2 left or something :D .

Nice one , you put your referral link on it, btw there's a imacro script for this, you don't need to like their page or post, bot will automatically like , just open new facebook account and configure with imacro script !
