Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think that I always tried to give back to the community, I made a free hosting giveaway here I was paying 10 $ per month for this and was giving it away for FREE. I've gived back for free everything I could sell to the community.

I think I am a very generous person and should deserve to be upgraded.

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

-- I deserve an upgrade because I have a Australian paypal and my account will get closed and I will be IP banned if I attempt to upgrade, I also deserve an upgrade because I am constantly scammed and we can leave a neutral rep to scammers and possible scammer, sketcy users etc. I also deserve an upgrade so I can give back to HF in the giveaway section because I can't post there as a normal user. --

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think I am very active in the community and caring. Here are some examples I gave away a steam account to a member also about two days ago I gave a Gamer Tag Away. I think I am a kind and generous person and I do not scam people, I have no neg rep, and I don't freak out when people do the wrong thing I tell them to do whats right. That's why I should deserve an upgrade to L33T.

Good Luck to all members entering!

Thank you for hosting this contest!

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I consider myself to be a very friendly user and I'm always willing to help other members in need. I have authored two guides entitled "All Computer Protection and Security Alerts Tutorials" and "All Overclocking, and Hardware Tutorials". I also co-authored the guide "Ultimate Guide to Building and Overclocking computers with 20+ builds" and created the post "Custom PC Service". I am well experienced with computer builds and have assisted numerous other members in their builds. I have zero Negative rep that I attribute to my ability to provide useful and accurate information while refraining from needless chatter. I am conscience to only posting high quality responses. Additionally, I am a firm believer in giving back to the community. If I am successful in achieving an upgrade, it will only be for the purposes of editing my posts and expanding my mail box to better serve the community.

M-SIGMA - June 29, 2012, 1:49 pm

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think that I deserve the upgrade to l33t for several reasons.

1. I am a very active member of the forum. I visit whenever I have time to and try to make time (sometimes) so that I can visit it and see what's new. Getting l33t would further my involvement with the forum as it would give me more incentive to keep visiting, posting and helping out other members of the community.

2. I have helped numerous people on the forum, from botnet setup to batch help to general windows help. On most sections of the forum you will be able to find at least 1 post where I have helped someone out.

I hear you say "got any proof?"; well, yes I do as it happens nichreale - [Vouch! Legit He Did It For Me In Like 5 Minutes. And Explained Everything To Me Perfect! :)]

KEYLOGGER:

[ninjamateusz - And Thank you so much M-Sigma You Really Helped Me :D, Thx!!!]

BATCH:

[-PlaZma- - It worked! Thanks M-Sigma, you really helped me out there, it had been driving me mad!]

NOTE: This list is pretty old, so there are a LOAD of other people that I have helped since. Search through my posts to be able to gauge the amount of members I have helped.

Why would getting l33t change this?

Well, it would make me visit the forums a lot more often as it would incentivise me to keep checking what responses there are to posts and also checking more threads that people make. This will increase the chance that I will be able to help more people out. People would also trust the advice I give more because whether people like it or not; l33t members are trusted more than normal users.

3. I am always looking to increase my body of knowledge and that would work with the other two points to increase the time I spend on the forum and the amount of members I ultimately help out. A lot more people would also be more willing to help me out because I would have the l33t status.

Well that's about it I guess. If vouches count for anything I'm pretty sure I could rustle some up from a few of the members I have helped. Just let me know if you want them and I will let them flood in.

YekiM - June 29, 2012, 2:16 pm

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I have been on Hackforums for quite some time now and have only ever tried to stay High quality as possible. I have only once received a warning level that was for the 35 character post but is now expired. I try to help various members of the community as best as I can. I am extremely active and always floating about the lounge to see who I can assist to day. If you look at my rep it is mostly positive and rep such as "Thanks for the excel help" or "You saved a lot of accounts on HF today well done".

I have helped the community in various ways, I have gave free things away in the free services / giveaway sections.

I help users in the R.A.T section giving them high - detailed answers that they would require to enable them to be able to operate the program.

I have helped people solve problems that are posted in the lounge for example the excel help that some guy needed.

I am always high quality posting and take posts seriously (some times unless its a troll) and I try and help them as best as I can.

I plan to stay on HF for as long as I possibly can because this sites isn't about hacking at all. Its a family that I enjoy to participate with.

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

If I become a L33t, I would strive to be much more active here, be much more into discussions, I would do the most that I could to help others. I would occasionally sell things, but that will not be my defining aspect for my future. I would use renewed effort to make HF a much more peaceful and fun environment. I would treat all members equally, and use my reputation powers fairly.

Since I have never scammed, nor intend to, I would use the more legitimate sections in the marketplace to buy and sell goods without fear of being scammed.

I'm going to be staying here a long time, as not a day goes by when I don't learn something new from HF. All the donations and upgrades from the forum will keep it alive for much longer aswell as the desire to learn more and each that exists in every non-trolling member here.

I would be more respected than what I am now. Because I am not upgraded, some think they can push normal members around, and it won't be stopped anytime soon, which is why i want to break free of this system.

Unlike many, I don't care about being -repped, unless it is for an invalid reason. I would never abuse my new powers, and I would treat all other members, upgraded and non-upgraded equally.

I would strive to make HF a peaceful and caring place.

But most importantly, the money donated to upgrade me would help the best forum ever stay up.

I have helped the community in multiple ways:

I have posted my 2 cents when applicable, and I've taught other members what I know whenever they needed to know something.

I have been an active and friendly member here, helping whenever, wherever.

Even though rep doesn't matter to me, I have never been -repped, showing I am trustworthy and generally likeable.

I am certainly not a leech. When using software from these forums, I post feedback, so that the creator may take them into consideration, and possibly add or remove functions.

All in all, I have generally been a good cookie on these forums, trying to make it a peaceful and caring place.

Thanks for letting me compete, and good luck to everyone,

--I deserve a upgrade from normal to l33t because i have cherished the time i have spent here and want to take the next step into l33t from a member. I would like to contribute more to the community although i am limited to my abilities with being a normal member. If that's helping new member or just posting it could help. I have not been scammed or scammed people and don't intend to. I want to help on the gaming section and coding section. I know a vast amount about gaming on consoles and PC's. I intend to start learn to code and teach. Thanks for taking your time for reading this. Good luck to everyone else in this contest!--

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I have been long time on HackForums (arround a year in some days), when i joined i had no knowledge at all, i have grown with the comunnity, learning and sharing my knowledge with other persons, one of my first contributions to HackForums was HFX Booter, in that time there were only few booters arround and i learned a lot from other persons, some of my other giveaways were Free Web Hosting, GFX, Booter Setup, Translation \(English to Spanish\) and more

I Consider myself a HQ member, from the begining i tried to be as High Quality member as i can (obviously i improved a lot since the first time), i have learned PHP, Java, VB.net, Networking and a lot of other things here, this is the best forum I've ever been, also i would like to be upgraded to ub3r to improve my good reputation (i don't have scam reports and over 30+ successful trades, i was going to upgrade myself but i can not pay for it)

I Have been helping members since the starting, one of the most significative services that i provided was Anti Member Abuse Service (probably not too many people were needing it as it didn't got too many attention ?)

I Would like to thank you for give this oportunity to the community and good luck to everyone (doesn't matter if i don't get upgraded, probably there will be someone deserving it more than me, anyways i am applying for ub3r)

This is my Ub3r Approval proof:

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think I should win because I am a high quality member. I am very active on the forum, and have done many giveaways. I donate a lot of my time to this community to help make it a better place. Due to the economy it has been tough to spend money on luxury items such as an upgrade. Every post I make is very high quality, I don't use bad grammar and I never spam post. When members ask me questions I give them answers that are very detailed and thorough. I am a nice member and I never put others down. I have been a member on this site for a long time and will be continuing to stay here for a long time as well. If you were to upgrade me I would always be willing to help you in any way that I can. Whenever someone helps me, I post great feedback and let them know I would like to return the favor. I have never had a scam report, I have been here well over two months, and I am in positive rep. I also loose my warning level very soon.

Thanks and I hope you consider upgrading me.

These are a few examples of me helping the community-

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think I should be upgraded to L33T, because I try my best contribute to this forum.

I'm a very active member posting each day and always going from section to section, trying my best to help and support anyone that needs it.

I always contribute to this community by hosting giveaways, and releasing useful resources that people may find useful.

I have been a member since 2010 and trying my best to increase in helping more and more people each day.

My rep isn't the greatest, because I just started using these forums a lot more lately, and hope to keep contributing for this forum each and everyday.

If I do earn this chance to become L33T, I will keep striving my best to support this forum.

Thank you for allowing me a chance for an upgrade,

Why do you deserve a upgrade::

I deserve an upgrade because PayPal is blocked in my country and i don't have any other way to buy from the internet . I sometimes use my friends PayPal account for simple give away. All my threads are HQ and legit + Giveaways , I don't put surveys(i used to :/ one time) nor ad-click links to not annoy anyone . and finally i like to get more noticed in the forum which can happen by an upgrade . + Omni restricted normal members from posting in hacking tools section and member contest ..

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I deserve the upgrade because I am pretty helpful around the forum. I help a few members on HF through Skype learn to trade the stock market. I plan to continue helping others in the monetizing section. It would be a lot easier if I could post threads their. I invested in a UBER members investment program, still waiting for him to give me a 50% ROI. My money is currently tied up in my investments, school, and I'm hosting a stock market contest here. If you can help me take that next step boss, that would be great!

Best of luck to everyone in the contest,
Guru

WishBone - June 29, 2012, 9:38 pm

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I may not have what it takes against other members for an upgrade but I can say that I am humble. I was raised that way and I don't have that typical cockiness and "Im a tough guy IRL" attitude online. With that, I can say I will never become some cocky douche even when I become successful both online and real life. I am also very persistent when it comes to my goals. Right now, it's to earn a steady income online(since I spend lots of time online) so I can help pay for my college tuition and maybe buy a new desktop PC due to the fact that I've been using this same PC for 7 years. It's been years since I've bought something new for myself including new clothes so I think I deserve it.

I have done a few giveaways lately from what resources I have. I plan to make ebooks or reports once I start earning good and give back to the HF community. I have been accepted into Foolish and I plan on buying my upgrade myself. But I have been earning quite slow compared to other new members and I still need to come up with a good method. With this upgrade, I should be able to get access to better material and resources as well as good ebooks and methods and earn more.

I try my best to be as HQ as possible in all of my posts. As I am still new IMO, I would say I can offer a lot more in the monetizing community as I have been. I haven't started earning good money yet so I have almost nothing to teach except help people get accepted in networks that require applications. But if I win, this upgrade is going to get me access to more resources and help me achieve that goal and give back to the community.

Why does Cydris deserve an upgrade?

Cydris deserves an upgrade to l33t for numerous reasons!

First, I would like to recognize his kindness when ever I have dealt with him before and the way he treats others is outstanding!

Second, he tries to only post high quality (Which I respect him for) and always looks for a way to help someone!

Third, his limitations including PMs becoming full fast and not being to be able to post in the marketplace to make threads about selling numerous things is sad since I know he is very a trustworthy person and would make many people happy with his sales and would only treat people with respect.

Many people have told him that he is a great person and that he should upgrade, but he has not been able to make enough money as a regular member (since you are not allowed to make a thread in the marketplace) to buy l33t.

He would really be a great addition to the l33t side of things and would definitely thank you well and make sure to make you proud with his new upgrade to l33t!

I am a very HQ user on hackforums, I like to help out members when I can by giving them tutorials and other help that they may need. I have been giving away lots of e-books, sig spaces, user title space and lots more away for free. I am very friendly and will talk to anybody over PM on HF or skype. I have been a member for over a year now and I feel this is the perfect time for me to be upgraded to UB3R. If I am upgraded to UB3R it will encourage me to make e-books, tutorials and do more giveaways. Unfortunately I am a bit short on money at the moment and this is why I am asking somebody else to do it.

For proof of me being accepted please PM me.

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

1. Honest, polite & trustworthy member of HF
2. I am learning a lot here. In return, I am giving back many freebies to this community without discriminating members' status (standard/upgraded)
3. If I am being upgraded, I will be able to give freebies more easily
4. I am unbiased in my judgement and will always use my rating power wisely.

In short, I deserve upgrade because, both HF & I will be benefiting out of it.

Thanks for this nice contest.

I believe I deserve L33T because I truly enjoy helping other users. I enjoy contributing to the great community Hack Forums is. Also, everything I do on here is far from a waste of time and I learn new things everyday from the other helpful users within HF. Well, to be honest, I Don't Know. Honestly. A lot of Ubers/Leets Kept asking these questions. I don't see myself as deserving this as much as any other members who is signing up for this. I mean, i have an average of 3.66 Post a day, but that doesn't change the fact that i deserve an upgrade? Correct?

It all comes down to what have i contributed and how much have i contributed.

I think I am very active in the community and caring. Here are some examples I gave away a steam account to a member also about two days ago I gave a Gamer Tag Away. I think I am a kind and generous person and I do not scam people, I have no neg rep, and I don't freak out when people do the wrong thing I tell them to do whats right. That's why I should deserve an upgrade to L33T.

Good Luck to all members entering!
Thank you for hosting this contest!

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I think I'm a pretty good member, always helping people, etc.

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I have been pretty active with the marketplace and sellings, and due to that, I would love to be upgraded to prevent scams in the happening. Not only that, but I've been helping in the best way I could try and increase the knowledge of one. I have created a couple tutorials (e-whoring) and I have gotten successful results from it. It seems as if normals aren't really part of the community as much as the upgrades as they get more features and more contests in hand for them, and less for the normals to get in the action. I am REALLY active on this site (about 4 days on my profile) and I created my account not to long ago, and I'm still heading to the top :).

Anyways, getting l33t would be really cool to get and help fit in with the community, and bring in some more offers to normals/l33ts/and ub3rs

Skrillex - July 2, 2012, 3:09 am

Good luck to all ! :) ? ?

Harry Dresden - July 2, 2012, 3:21 am

Just to inform that Peter Burke's recommendation for l33t on my behalf is no longer needed for obvious reasons.

Thanks for hosting the contest anyway :)

Good luck to everyone left!

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I believe I deserve Ub3r because I have been on this site for more than a year now and I am an active member who has learned a great deal from this forum. I always try to be open minded and make sure to post wisely throughout the site. I help new members in securing their accounts, whether it be emails, gamertags, or aim sn's, while teaching them how to stay safe when dealing. I am always polite and courteous to other members and am glad to help anyone out. I have held about eight contests or so, and have given away over 70+ emails to several members. I have never scammed anyone and continue to do fair transactions with other people. Also, I will not abuse the power of the upgrade, while I have been scammed by multiple Ub3r members and know how it feels. I would greatly appreciate the upgrade to Ub3r and thank you for this awesome opportunity.

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I contributed much to the community with tools, programs & nice tutorials. I'm helping everywhere I can,

I dont ignore a user only because he have 25 posts, I will still help everyone.

HackForums is a place where you can chill, learn, teach & help, I can chill and hangout here after a hard day, a place where I can share my stuff, where I can read news and tutorials. I really love to be a part of this community.

Hack Forums is not only a hacking forum for me, its a second home :3.

Good luck to everyone !

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

-- I deserve an upgrade because I have been here for a long time and wanted to upgrade for all of it, however I have a limited income and gasoline is expensive. --

Tutelary - July 6, 2012, 4:57 pm

Why do I deserve an upgrade?

I really just want an upgrade. I've helped maybe 1-2 hundred people with their RAT problems and have asked for pretty much nothing in return. I generally consider myself a pretty good guy to talk to, to discuss subjects with, whatever. I've also encountered several people I've wanted to give bad reputation to/ Give good reputation to. Since I'm a regular member, I cannot do so. I guess the main reason(s) is: I want it, I've always wanted to give reputation to people. Plus I've helped out so many people with general problems with RAT's. So...yeah, that's it.

-Lakai

EDIT: I'd pretty much worship you for all eternity if you do decide to upgrade me.
