Thread: AA Weekly Poll #17: Do you listen to anime music because of anime?

oneechan - July 15, 2012, 10:51 pm

Hello AA, it's time for our weekly poll. For this one, do you listen to anime music because of anime?

Last week's poll results:

Lots of you have been VERY dedicated anime fans. With almost half of you having been into it for 4+ years now.

This week's poll: Do you listen to anime music because of anime?

Have you gotten into more asian music and anime soundtracks thanks to anime? Or maybe you've always been into it? Or maybe even you think asian music sucks or plain don't like it?

Feel free to leave a comment as to why you picked what you picked. This is not a debate thread. Poll is public and single choice only. Poll will close in 5 days.

Know a good poll topic? PM Angel or PM sp3ctr3 and your topic may be the next AA poll!

Initially I used to hate all types of music about a year ago and didn't listen to music for months. I was just plain sick of all the mainstream shit and genres until I had discovered Hardstyle which was okay for the time being got me back into music. And about 2 months after I discovered Hardstyle my bro showed me Ranma 1/2 which from there I discovered AA and left off from there to where I am now(MAL). Initially my first watch besides Ranma 1/2 was Angel Beats! and from there I really liked GDM. Of which I started listening to OST's and then eventually found Guilty Crown and got hooked on all the ost's. Then came across J-Music suggestions by Twisted. and from there I left off to liking J-Rock and Anime music. So what it really comes down to is that AA brought me into Anime and I have stayed ever since :)

I like it but i don't choose to listen it, same with anime, i watch it because i love it, and that's all, i don't really look up the tracks and listen to them or anything like that, so No.

Arruke - July 15, 2012, 11:40 pm

Yep, if I never watched anime I would have never pursued jmusic or any other asian music most likely, or never would've had any interest in learning japanese. Anime = life changing experience, figure that shit out >.>

Definitely, anime was what got me into asian music, if i found an OST i loved i searched the band and that lead to a general enjoyment of asian music. Thou i like traditional asian music too, which is not due to anime.

KinGxKeV - July 16, 2012, 1:21 am

I have been a fan of asian music since before I watched anime it just sounded so cool!

FLCL got me really into, The Pillows. Even though I'm not sure what half the lyrics are, I like them.

Hmmm...

I listen to anime music because it's kinda pleasant to my ears.

The only 'asian' music I've started listening to is 'Bad Apple' and That's all.

I only like the OST but beside that, no I don't like asian music.

?aragon - July 16, 2012, 8:29 am

I never listened to music before I started watching anime, and collecting various OSTs :)

GL1TCH3D - July 16, 2012, 8:49 am

I didn't listen to ANY asian music (or just foreign music for that matter) before watching anime.

After enjoying some anime like angel beats, I started adding songs from anime to my collection (mainly OPs, but sometimes entire OSTs) and now I'd say that 50% of the music I listen to is anime music.

Incest - July 16, 2012, 11:55 am

Yeah, I've gotten into a lot more asian music thanks to anime.

[AF] Youssef - July 16, 2012, 4:13 pm

Anime got me into it partially. Though the FLCL OST's got me hooked!

Odin of Aesir - July 16, 2012, 4:22 pm

Definitely. I was big into classical and older rock before anime, and then I heard the Death Note soundtrack. I loved it; I watched more anime, too, and loved the openings. Anime changed my taste in music forever.

Wojak - July 16, 2012, 8:14 pm

I used to listen to japanese music (not anime music) but after I watched Clannad, I started adding anime songs to my collection :P

Yui Hirasawa - July 17, 2012, 8:28 am

I don't listen to it out of blue, but I always am when I'm playing Osu!

:p
