Thread: Anyway to bypass Instagram following limit per hour?

CyGod - July 19, 2012, 2:59 pm

So I did a bit of research on Google and found out that there is a limit of 200 people per hour that you could follow on Instagram. Does anybody know of a way to somehow bypass this limit?

atm i dont think so you can through the basic ways. there is a specific bot that doesnt even bypass it but can follow mass amount of people normally i think you have to buy that are these limits new? i knew there was a like limit but I didn't think there was a follow

Yeah, I'm pretty sure they are recent. Instagram is starting to tighten up their limits :/

I just followed 1400 people legitimately no block?

Huh..in one hour? Even if I use a bot, it still says its following people but the follow counter doesn't go up so its not really following them.

I believe it might just be on your end bud i don't have a limit either.

Yes, I'm having this issue now that I have been trying to bot it.

I guess it's the bot.
