Service is okay, I guess.

Paid $10 for 500 installs (he said he installed 570). I've only got 140 in my list. :|...

My server is definitely undetected.

Over half of them - on my list, at least - are from Japan. :/

When someone pays for 500 and only gets 140... that's not exactly something to be happy about. My crypter is fine/bot, it is not always the botsellers fault, it can be your bot itself, the hosting site, etc.

No botseller on HF will guarantee how many bots you will receive, that's why they sell executions an not the number of bots you receive.

Marcus Aurelius - July 27, 2012, 1:51 pm

Guys, BiH sold me 700 bots, i got 660 bots. That is a amazing run, i am pretty new to this but i know that; when you gets bots it is a gamble and you need to know how to maintain them, and sometimes if your crypter is unFUD or has even a little dependency at all you could not get some or lose some. It is like going to casinos with slot machines for example, you pay to play, and sometimes you get less then you pay for, if you lose money, would go to the manager and go "I want my money back", guess what, you are not going to get your money back. I know BiH personally and he is a legit fucker and is cool too :)! I just wanted to explain somethings to you.

About resending, That's not my responsibility. That's yours. So the answer is no.

It's only my job to execute the amount you pay for that's it, your job to keep them etc.

Considering you haven't responded to the PM or the thread I figured it was dead, chill out dude. Maybe some activity with it wouldn't lead me to assume you stopped with this. Also, I read the date but misread the edited date and assumed it was still open based on the fact it was still in your signature, but then I didn't know if you just stopped using the forums.

There's many possibilities, but don't just ignore users' PMs, if you don't want to sell or can't at least respond or update the thread..
