Would have been nice if you had asked me before taking content directly from the Illuminati GFX pack, even though we did not create it, our group spent a hard time putting this together.

You're welcome, sir. Keep checking back, I'm doing another giveaway soon

Invisus - August 8, 2012, 5:09 am

Thanks for choosing to ignore my post in this thread about taking content from the Illuminati pack and not asking for permission.

BELLAGIO - August 8, 2012, 9:25 am

Why are you taking credit for something that was done by an illuminati member?

You didn't even asked for permission and even if you did the answer would have been no.

You have to respect others peoples work.

I'm just being realistic.

Stev - August 8, 2012, 9:39 am

This is made by an Illuminati member, you shithead leecher, at least give him the credits he deserves.

Temper ? - August 8, 2012, 1:28 pm

The credits are inside the pack. It says on the thread...

There is ONE folder, which it character renders that was from the illuminati pack.

Even still there is stuff that I put in.

It was kinda hard to remember to ask everyone if it could be in there, but I did give credits.

Still you took content without asking for permission.

I could take all public released packs on the entire site and combine them into one big pack and claim it as my own leaving credits in some hidden .txt document inside it and then mislead everyone to think that I made it as well.

?ades - August 8, 2012, 1:47 pm

I never got a pm where you asked if you could use it?

The .txt isn't hidden, it's right there when you open it...?

I'm sorry, alright?

It's been removed, I've just been stressed and I thought I had already asked.

The only folders that were yours were the Character Renders.

I even says on the thread that it came from your pack?

No longer giving this away, PM me if you still want, one folder of content will be missing.
