Graffworld - August 4, 2012, 6:05 am

Again, "FaiLL", shut the fuck up. It didn't take you that long to accumulate a few stock backgrounds that aren't even yours in the first place. Why should you get anything in return for compiling backgrounds and giving them away? I'd understand if you made the backgrounds, but no. Get that shit out of here!

Simzen - August 4, 2012, 6:06 am

Just use something else, like adf.ly to get some money.
No one does surveys.

It takes time for people to write up tutorials as well, but they don't generally dish their tutorials out under a survey link.

If you're giving things out for the sake of earning money, don't try to pass it off as contributing. Sure, you're giving it out to the upgraded members, but fuck you, no.
