<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2579062>dhanyawad bhai! ? par yaar that post says we should use "http://metascan.org/" but this is wrong. have a look at this url, they clearly say: "All files uploaded through Metascan Online are subject to internal use by OPSWAT and malware samples may be shared with OPSWAT's partners." ?

4-<http://scan4you.net>thanks for updating your post buddy but sadly none of them is free - also, have a look at this url, "metascan-online.com" clearly says:
"All files uploaded through Metascan Online are subject to internal use by OPSWAT and malware samples may be shared with OPSWAT's partners."

check4me has a few engines - else this the best as of now!

and since scan4you.net is a paid service, element scanner offering just 2 free scans a day - i was waiting for someone to post a free site and thats why am still waiting for replies - i'll definitely close the thread once i get something! thanks for your help buddy! ?

Well i heard thats this one is good and not distribute sample, and of course it's free, you just need to register : <http://www.totalviruscheck.com/mbrs/index.php>

I dont know if it's true for the sample or not.

I dont know if it's true for the sample or not. Thanks a lot goldarnaud8 - i have checked one account and 3 files consecutively for free!! most probably this site is in beta mode because it clearly says - "starting from only $29.99" and when i clicked "Buy Now" nothing happens!! hehe ? i hope we can trust them when they display the first feature on their homepage as "Complete Discretion: We never have and never will share our results, or processed files with 3rd parties" whats more - there are 35 engines to scan from!! thanks a lot for sharing that buddy!?

is that site safe? - anyone?
