Your No.1 Source for Monetizing Techniques

Hi guys, I'm excited to present to you a new forum where young, monetizing enthusiasts such as yourselves share the best techniques teaching you how to make BANK on the web!

Many of you have already signed up to the forum but for those who haven't let me take a second to run through what we offer exactly, maybe I can help explain why you will regret not having signed up sooner.

As you know, Walt and I own DollarFiles.net, between us we have made tens of thousands of dollars in the CPA/PPD industry as well as various other methods.

We have decided to create a forum for those of you who are passionate about making money online, for those of you who are always aiming for MORE... We, as well as our members are releasing hundreds of tutorials and providing information for those who are looking to monetize online.

In just over a week we received 500 new members!

Hundreds of users, like yourself have already signed up to EmpireRevenue.net and are taking full advantage of the tutorials and information our users share with one another.

Whether you love to earn big in CPA, PPD, PPC, we cover it all!

Maybe you fancy sharing your inner-artist in our Graphics section where users offer services, give constructive criticism and offer graphic tutorials?

We have a strong, friendly community who are always going the extra mile to ensure new members have a warm welcoming and receive the up most respect. If you ever have any questions or issues you never have to hesitate, the users, staff and admins are always happy to help.

Kinda confused why you included earning screenshots for a forum.

Just to prove that Walt and I know our stuff in the CPA/PPD area and are teaching our users how to earn big, like us.

You'd be surprised how many times users ask for proof on what we say is true.

Traitor-Panda - August 7, 2012, 3:47 pm

Looks slick. Although a new monetizing forum isn't something really innovative.

It's just over a week old now, it's not innovative but I'll tell you something: I'm about to launch something on there which will knock your socks off ;)

Do you have an ETA on when DF/ER will be back? Hopefully the DDoS won't last too long.

Sir Smiles - August 13, 2012, 12:43 pm

I attempted to sign up, but the site seems to be down currently.

Interested in learning to make money through PPD, or any other alternative method I could easily get my hands on. This will be my first stop in learning, as I find the cluttered e-book section of our forums here ridiculous.

Good.Sir - August 13, 2012, 4:24 pm

I was going to look into it, although the site didn't load? Maybe it's just my computer so I'm not sure, good luck with your forum my good sir ;)

A + - August 13, 2012, 7:47 pm

Been there for a little over a week. It's a nice place to be. I've got high hopes for it's success. :)

Walt - August 14, 2012, 2:52 am

Before 50 of you guys ask I'll tell you now: We're offline for a few hours while some new settings propagate.

EDIT: We're back up and running now!
