Thread: [\[Template\] Company Logo](#)

trc_ - February 16, 2010, 8:15 pm

Here is a template I spent some time on tonight for you lovely folks on HF. This is a simple yet effective logo you can use for ideas or just to slap on your brand new site. The template is free and I really don't care what you do with it. I hope you like it. Also, I ask of nothing in return for this, simply because it's really not that big of a deal.

P.S. I know it's not amazing but it's the thought that counts?
