He has a good method going here, he's done this to others at the same time as me as well so there should be multiple scam reports coming up for him.

He finds fairly new members who haven't upgraded (so they cannot -rep him) and gets them to sell him the gp, then he makes out like he's sent it and says to wait, but it never comes through and he just ignores you after.

The trade was 25m for $12.50 PAYZA.

BEFORE HE POSTS HIS FAKE IMAGES!

He sent me images showing that he's sent the payment, however, they took him a few minutes to send me so he must have a PSD layout ready to use or something.

Here's the fake images;

SECOND time i've been scammed by an Uber, luckily the first one returned it after I made a scam report.

Hope this can be resolved, it's pathetic that people like him are able to do this so easily.

Thanks in advance,

Caly.

Hahaha, ohwow. Stop being such a noob. You've gotten scammed twice within 48 hours.

You've got to checkup others before doing deals, he has 4 scam reports.

Got scammed by this guy also. :/ He's so pathetic scamming for 37$. Gonna make a scam report on his ass soon, as for now here is some proof.

I was selling 83m to him for 37$ via LR, i added him on skype chatted with him for a bit then did the trade. I gave him 83m as agreed, he then kept saying that he sent the money to my LR, but i didn't receive a cent. He said that it takes a while for the money to show up in my account, but after a while i asked him again and he kept ignoring me, and after that he blocked me.

I saw him doing another trade on rs to a guy, found out later that he was caly. Both of us got scammed at the same time by him doing multi-trades.

I hope he gets banned, I know this is also my mistake partially because i didnt check his scam reports, but i saw his thread and he looked pretty legit to me. :/

I dont really care for that gp since i already had it for free, but a scam report should be made to warn other members from falling for it.

Why don't you look up the user's profile before dealing ? He already has several reports open!

IMachavelli - August 13, 2012, 8:08 am

Why does this keep happening? Maybe members should be banned for life for scamming members.

Teh_L33t - August 18, 2012, 11:49 am

I was also scammed.

I love how other Ub3rs, and L33ts are calling you a noob, and won't say shit about it.

Sorry this happened to you. He deserves to get banned for scamming 4 people already.
